

Mina Martinez

Founder and Master Instructor of Business Protocol and Dining Etiquette

EtiquetteSeminars.com

info@etiquetteseminars.com
310-729-7031

BIO

Since 2009, Mina Martinez, Founder and Chief Etiquette Officer of Prestige Protocol, a Los Angeles-based professional etiquette service specializing in etiquette, has trained 12,000+ individuals in business, social and dining etiquette. As Master Instructor of business protocol and dining etiquette, she has been helping businesses grow their client base by creating the correct business and dining etiquette. Clients master the valuable life skills through workshops in a variety of topics that positively impacts youth through professionals. Inspired audiences enjoy life with new grace and ease. Mina is called upon by private clientele and professional colleagues to contribute her diverse skills and expertise on a variety of wide course offerings. Her vast travel experience has her well-versed in cultural traditions, etiquette, design and management of events, as well as refresh-on Wedding, Social and Fine Dining Etiquette. Clients have landed employment opportunities from academia to the workforce reeking the benefits of professional business and dining savvy to Excel Above the Rest.

FAST FACT

Mina is passionate about mentoring young students, and she volunteers providing business etiquette trainings, dining tutorials and presentations at local and out-of-state schools, colleges and organizations. She gives back to the community by sharing interactive etiquette guidelines that instruct adults and youth with knowledge, skill and confidence in manners and etiquette. Through workshops, seminars and personal consultation, Mina works with clients to perfect their personal and professional presence and to increase the awareness of the benefits of Professional Business and Dining Savvy.

Headshots

Brand Sheets

Logos

