Don't miss the annual Mardi Gras pancake breakfast in Fellowship Hall following worship on Sunday, February 15. The Christian Education Committee will again help host this wonderful time of food and fellowship. You don't want to miss it!

Mark your calendars!

On Saturday, March 7, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Williston Federated Church will again host a workshop led by the nationally-renowned church vitality coach Rev. Paul Nickerson. Methodist and UCC congregations across Vermont are invited to attend this event as well.

Paul Nickerson's workshops are always engaging and entertaining—and his presentation approach helps to inspire congregations to come up with their own creative ideas to implement the outreach strategies he recommends. His training around discipleship and stewardship is deeply meaningful as well.

Our congregation has been blessed by the coaching of Paul Nickerson in the past. (Some of our most effective outreach ideas came from our coaching sessions with Paul.) We hope that you will make plans to attend. Please RSVP to Pam at the church office (WillistonFederatedChurch@gmail.com or 802-878-5792) to indicate your interest in attending.

A lunch of soup & sandwiches with a morning snack will be provided to all attendees. A signup to help with this will be posted on the bulletin board.

A compelling conversation that we need right now

A nation broken by injustice. A society riven by division. Sound familiar? This was the world that confronted Howard Thurman, a great African American pastor and theologian of the twentieth century. Howard Thurman's writings proved deeply relevant to the Civil Rights movement and remain remarkably relevant today.

In the coming weeks, we, too, can benefit from the abundant wisdom offered by this significant spiritual leader. Beginning Thursday, January 29, our pastoral (seminarian) intern Dr. Jill Irvine will lead an adult study series focused upon the life and thought of Howard Thurman. Our window into his work will be a more recent book authored by Lerita Coleman Brown entitled What Makes You Come Alive: A Spiritual Walk with Howard Thurman.

The schedule will be as follows:

- Thursday, January 29 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.
- Thursday, February 5 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.
- Thursday, February 12 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.
- Thursday, February 19 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.
- Thursday, March 5 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

NOTE: There will be no session on Thursday, February 26. (And for the duration of this study series, the “responding to racism” conversation will occur in the context of these Howard Thurman-focused sessions. The usual “responding to racism” conversations will resume on their regular schedule on March 12.)

These sessions will take place in Fellowship Hall—and will be made available online via Zoom. A light meal of soup and bread will be provided for those attending in-person (courtesy of the Christian Education Committee).

Please RSVP to Pam at the church office (WillistonFederatedChurch@gmail.com or 802-878-5792) to indicate your interest in attending.

The Season of Lent, a time of contemplation and prayer as we prepare for Easter, begins on Ash Wednesday, February 18, 2026. The following resources were compiled by Donna Fellinger of our congregation.

"OUTGROW" {The UCC (United Church of Christ) Lenten Booklet}

This booklet presents different ways to view 'giving up something for Lent.'

The booklet is written by individuals who are part of the "God Is Still Speaking, Writers' Group." Each writing includes a title, a Bible verse and perspectives on 'Out Growing.'

The season of Lent presents a special opportunity to intentionally invest time in considering spiritual growth. Below is a list of a few resources that some in our church have found meaningful in their spiritual journeys. You are invited to explore these or others to use in your daily time of meditation and/or prayer.
