

The Resurrection of our Lord is the ultimate victory of light over the shadow of death. As the women found the stone rolled away, we are reminded that no burden is too heavy for God to lift from our hearts. Christ has shattered the chains of sin, offering us the gift of eternal life and a fresh beginning. Let us rejoice in this miracle, for the empty tomb is the greatest sign of God's enduring love. May the glory of the Risen Christ illuminate your path and fill your soul with heavenly peace.

In the morning mist, the voice of the Savior called Mary by name, turning her sorrow into radiant joy. This Easter, listen for that same gentle voice calling you to leave behind your fears and walk in newness of life. We are no longer captives to the past, but children of the light, reborn through the water and the Spirit. As the apostle Paul wrote, if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him. Let your life be a living testament to the power of His grace and the truth of His word.

The peace of the Risen Lord is a treasure that the world can neither give nor take away from us. As the disciples were filled with awe in the Upper Room, may you feel His presence walking beside you today. We are called to be witnesses of the Resurrection, sharing the "Good News" of salvation with every person we meet. Let us lift our voices in a chorus of Alleluia, honoring the Lamb who was slain but now reigns in majesty. May the blessing of the Almighty Father, Son, and Holy Spirit remain with you throughout this holy season.
