Hymn: Joy to the World

Dear Friends, Church Family, and Visitors,

On this beautiful Christmas Eve, I want to welcome each one of you with heartfelt gratitude and joy. Whether you are part of our Wesleyville Baptist Church family or joining us as a guest tonight, we are honored that you have chosen to spend this sacred evening with us. Christmas has a way of gathering us together—around the story of Jesus, around one another, and around the gifts that God so generously pours into our lives.

During this Advent season, we have reflected on the gifts Christ brings: Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love.

Hope reminds us that even in the long nights and waiting seasons of life, God is still working.

Peace assures us that Christ enters the chaos of our world and brings calm to the restless heart.

Joy lifts our eyes from our troubles and fills us with the wonder of God's presence.

And Love—the greatest gift of all—is shown in a Savior who came near to us, walked among us, and offers grace without measure.

To all who are visiting with us this evening: welcome. We are truly glad you are here. It is our hope that you experience God's love in a meaningful way, and we want you to know there is always a place for you at Wesleyville Baptist Church.

Thank you, church family, for your faithful love, generosity, and commitment to sharing Christ's light in our community. And thank you to every person gathered here—your presence makes this night even more special.

With warm Christmas tidings and prayers for a blessed New Year,
Pastor Shane & Angela Thompson
