Facing the New Year with Hope

Three Truths for the New Year

1. A Christ-Follower Has No Regrets for the Past

- In Christ, we are made new — the old is gone, the new has come.
- God redeems all things, even mistakes and failures.
- Nothing in our lives is wasted in God's hands.

"Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead..."

— Philippians 3:13

2. A Christ-Follower Is Shaped by the Future, Not the Past

- Our identity is not defined by where we've been, but by where God is leading us.
- Hope in God's future shapes how we live right now.
- We live toward what God has promised, even when we cannot yet see it.

3. Hope for the Future Transforms the Present

- What we look forward to determines how we live today.
- Hope gives strength, endurance, and purpose.
- God calls us to keep our eyes on what is ahead — because the best is yet to come.

New Year Encouragement

As we step into this new year, we do so without regret, without fear, and without losing hope. God is already waiting for us in the future He is preparing.

Don't stop thinking about tomorrow — that's where God is leading us.
