Memorial Day: Remember the Sacrifice

“Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” — John 15:13

Main Points from Today’s Message

† Embrace the Sacrifice of Christ

Jesus demonstrated the greatest act of love by willingly laying down His life for humanity. Through His sacrifice, we receive forgiveness, redemption, and eternal life. Memorial Day reminds us to live with gratitude for both earthly freedom and spiritual freedom in Christ.

★ Honor the Fallen

Romans 13:7 reminds us to give “honor to whom honor is due.” Today we pause to remember those who paid the ultimate price for our freedom. We honor their memory, pray for their families, and give thanks for their selfless service.

♥ Live Sacrificially

As followers of Jesus, we are called to put others before ourselves. Sacrificial living looks like:

- Serving others with humility
- Showing kindness and compassion
- Meeting practical needs
- Supporting veterans and military families
- Living with gratitude and purpose

Practical Ways to Respond This Week

- Pray for military families and veterans
- Thank someone who has served
- Visit a memorial or attend a remembrance event
- Perform an act of kindness for someone in need
- Reflect daily on Christ’s sacrificial love
