STAND | Week 1: Stand in Strength

Scripture: Ephesians 6:10-13

1. The Strength to Stand Begins with _____, Not You

- “Be strong in the Lord...”
- Strength is something we _____, not something we create.
- God's power is made perfect in our _____.

2. Our Battle Is Not Against _____ and _____

- The real enemy is not people—it's the unseen spiritual forces of evil.
- We don't need stronger arguments; we need stronger _____.
- We fight not for victory, but from victory.

3. Standing Requires _____

- Jesus showed us in Gethsemane: “Not my will, but yours be done.”
- Submission precedes _____.
- The paradox: When I am _____, then I am strong.

4. God Doesn't Call You to Fight Alone—He Calls You to Stand _____

- Put on the full armor of God.
- Every piece points back to _____.
- “The Lord will fight for you; you need only to be _____.”

Reflection Question

Where in your life are you trying to stand in your own strength? Where is God inviting you to stop striving and start _____?
