EYES ON ME

BIG IDEA

Faith is a journey of stepping out and keeping our eyes on Jesus. When storms distract us and we begin to sink, Jesus reaches out with grace and restores us.

1. STEP OUT

Courage is a call to move toward Jesus.

Peter did not move until Jesus said, "Come." Faith is not reckless; it listens for Christ's voice and responds in trusting obedience. The step may feel uncertain, but every movement toward Jesus is a place where faith can grow.

Ask: Where is Jesus inviting me to take one faithful step this week?

2. FIX YOUR EYES

The discipline that sustains faith.

Peter sank when his focus shifted from Jesus to the storm. What captures our gaze eventually shapes our steps. We refocus through remembering who Jesus is, prayer, Scripture, worship, Christian community, and speaking truth when fear rises.

Remember: "Fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith." — Hebrews 12:2

3. WHEN YOU SINK

God's response is rescue and restoration.

When Peter cried, "Lord, save me!" Jesus immediately reached out His hand. Failure is not the end of the journey. Grace rescues, restores, and teaches us to look again toward Christ.

Ask: What has stolen my attention, and where do I need to cry out to Jesus?

THIS WEEK: STEP • FIX • CRY

STEP — Name one step of faith and take it.

FIX — Choose one practice that keeps your eyes on Jesus.

CRY — When you begin to sink, call out to Christ.
