But God Who is rich in mercy...

The Lord is doing great things

"I am writing on behalf of my Christian brothers, men who are currently incarcerated with me in the same holding cell. They are on fire for Christ and repentant of their sins. They are excited to get started and receive their first course. The Lord is doing great things in our holding cell. We appreciate the courses Write-Way is providing. Thank you for all that you do." Tye

Learning the Bible is the best use of all this time

"I have three years before I see parole. With all this time I have, I'm trying to be a better Christian and learn as much as I can of the Bible. A good Christian brother gave me your address and told me about your Bible study. I feel learning the Bible is the best use of all this time. Hope to hear from you soon," Andrew

They have something supernatural happen

"I've been 4 ½ years locked up and just recently started going to the chapel. People here told me they have miracles with their issues, even drugs, family, economy, mental health, and say they have something supernatural happen in their lives. I don't know if that can happen to me. I try to overcome little by little studying and reading the Bible myself every day. I want to change and have peace, joy, and love in my heart. Please enroll me with your Bible study. I promise I will do my best." Christian

I'm excited to continue

"I am currently taking your courses. I find them refreshing and I like doing them. I've done over five units already and I'm excited to continue them. Thank you so much." Early

Now unto Him Who is able...

I would love to continue

"Thank you so very much for the Born to Win Bible study course. I have learned a lot about the topic of faith in Jesus Christ, salvation, and ways the devil tries to confuse Christians. I would love to continue your Bible study courses. I will be shipped (from county jail) to some prison within 45 days. I am thankful there are wonderful Godly people like you who take time out of their day to help inmates like me strengthen their relationship with Jesus Christ. Doing the Bible study and reading God's word helps me stay happy and hopeful in a depressing and evil environment." Marcus

I look forward to hearing from you

"Thank you for sending me material from your organization. It really meant something to me, as I do not receive much mail from the outside. Since coming to prison, I have turned to the Lord and He has allowed me to somewhat feel better about myself. I have completed many courses from the Emmaus organization. I look forward to hearing from you." Jonathan (New Jersey)

Please keep sending them to me

"Thank you for allowing me to be a student. Thank you for taking the time to send these lessons to me. I do enjoy them and learn from them. Please keep sending them to me.

"I would like to ask a favor of you. The judge wants to know how I spend my time. If you could write a few good comments, it would be a really nice thing. "Jason [We don't write letters to parole, judges, or schools. But we do send the student copies of his transcript that can be forwarded to the proper authorities.]

My past no longer defines the man of God

“I am writing in regards to my lessons I have been actively taking. I’m really wanting to continue in my spiritual maturity and work on my path in righteousness, so the Lord can prepare me for the purpose of the ministry I pray to pursue beyond these prison walls. I have surrendered my life obediently and loyally to the fellowship of loving and serving our Lord Jesus Christ, to be His disciple to love and serve others for the glory of God. My past no longer defines the man of God I am. Write-Way’s Bible study courses are helping me develop a true understanding of God’s word, giving my life a worthy hope and purpose. I thank you for your time devoted to every lesson sent in helping me progress in the advancement of the gospel.” Tyrone

I’m extremely blessed to have Write-Way

“I wanted to drop a line to you guys with my enrollment for some ‘God pump.’ I have been in county jail for 11 months then finally arrived here at my hopeful final destination. God is so good to me and has been guiding, protecting, helping, and teaching me this whole walk to now. When I was placed in my dorm, there were many strong men of God here to prepare the way for me. In a short couple of weeks God has moved them on to their next assignment and pushed me into mine here in a leadership role with many men looking toward me to do what’s next and to support their walks with God. We now have multiple table Bible studies every day and our nightly prayer call for praise and fellowship. I’m extremely blessed to have Write-Way to support my spiritual growth.” Shane

It’s a measuring stick

“I loved this course. [Lessons for Christian Living] It’s a measuring stick and a great course to living the life God wants us to live as Christians.” O’Keefe

Thank you for the positive and supportive words

“Thank you for the positive and supportive words regarding my current scores. I would like to keep a high average, and I very much appreciate that your ministry’s desire is to have a dialogue with me, more so than just giving me a grade. Thank you for your understanding.” Matthew

I’ve learned so much

“I would like to thank everyone who has helped me through this learning journey. It has been greatly appreciated, and I’ve learned so much about myself and our Lord. It is something that will stay with me forever.” Miranda

I enjoy the written questions

“I really enjoy your courses. They are very influential and fun. I enjoy the written questions at the end of each chapter the most [What Do You Say?]. It really makes you think and apply what you’re learning in your own words. Thank you so much.” Mark
