"This is the first time I've taken a step to approach God." Placido

"I am a new brother in Christ. As of recently, I gave my life to the Lord! I am writing this letter for a Bible study as I want to grow as a believer. I am new to this, but am eager and willing to grow and learn more about God's Word, and to be able to walk an obedient walk with the Lord! Also, it would be a great honor and pleasure to be able to have someone as yourself to communicate and share the Word with me and, if possible, answer any questions or doubts. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter and respond." Joe

WPM Launching New Web Site

Our new web site, www.writewaypm.com, is up and looking sharp! Let us know if you see corrections that need to be made or if you think of something to be added.

"First of all, I want to thank you so much for the books you have been sending me and the inmates here in the Federal Correctional Institution. They have been incredibly helpful and have truly aided my spiritual growth. Secondly, I want to thank the prayer warriors for all the prayers they have offered for me and my family. God bless you for the help you are providing for me and the other prisoners here. I am especially thankful for the prayers for my family. Now, I am about to go home to a halfway house to start a new journey and a new life. I want to let others know that God is good and He always answers prayers. Thank you again. I just want you to know that this comes sincerely from my heart."

Frederick

"I'm writing today to first and foremost show my appreciation for these courses that Write-Way and Emmaus provide. I've learned so much. Thanks to these courses and evidence from the Holy Spirit, I have been able to memorize the order of books in the New Testament. Having to flip back and forth helped. LOL. Thanks for reading my letter and responding." Matthew

"I was thinking you might like a picture. When I don't have a Bible study to do, and am waiting for the next one, I do these pictures to keep my wandering mind occupied with right things. Thanks for making me the person I am today." Wiley

July 1, 2026 Webinar: Fighting for Families: How advocates are resisting attacks on visitation and physical mail.

Jails and prisons across the country are implementing increasingly restrictive communication policies. Contact visitation is under attack, and more than 30 states no longer allow incarcerated people to receive physical mail from their loved ones. Join the Prison Policy Initiative on July 1 from 1:00 pm to 2:30 pm EST, as we welcome Jodi Hocking, Executive Director of Return Strong Nevada, and Taj Mahon-Haft PhD, Director of The Humanization Project in Virginia. We'll take a closer look at the importance of family connections, learn more about the ways they are under attack, and share strategies to help families fight back. “First, my deepest appreciation for the booklets sent to me. We occasionally all need to go back to milk. Second, it has been refreshing to go through these studies and be able to circulate them to other doulos (servants) in the gospel. The studies are sufficient as His grace sustains and is sufficient during this afflicting time. To Him be the glory!” Donald

Your studies are inspiring, educational, and highly anticipated. Struggling through endless hours of tedious boredom can get frustrating at times. But knowing that there are organizations such as yours that reach out to us brings light into dark places such as these. Thank you once again for all that you do.” Stanley
