

Mark Tough – Sunday 22 June 2025
Isaiah 49:14-52:12 - The path to everlasting joy

1) Isaiah 49:14-52:12 focuses on promises that God made c_____ Jerusalem

a) Isaiah 49:14-50:3 – God promised that he would not f_____ Jerusalem and that he would repopulate it

Isaiah 49:14-15

Isaiah 49:19-20

b) Isaiah 50:4-51:11 – God promised that Jerusalem would be t_____

Isaiah 51:3

c) Isaiah 51:12-52:12 – God promised to r_____ Jerusalem from her affliction

Isaiah 52:2-3

2) The servant is the p_____ embodiment of how God wants people to live

a) The servant l_____ to God and o_____ him

Isaiah 50:4-5

b) The servant experiences r_____ but keeps living for God and trusting in him for v_____

Isaiah 50:6-8a

Luke 9:51 and 18:31-33

3) God promised that those who follow the teaching and example of the servant will dwell in the t_____ Jerusalem a) Those who f_____ the Lord will o_____ the word of his servant

Isaiah 50:10a

John 5:42b-43a and 7:16

b) We are called to t_____ in God as the servant did

Isaiah 50:10b-11

c) God promised to b_____ those who pursue righteousness as the servant did

Isaiah 51:1-2

Isaiah 51:3

Isaiah 51:4-5

d) We are called to follow the servant's example of living for God despite the o_____ this brings

Isaiah 51:6-8

Matthew 10:28

4) Those who pray to God in times of darkness asking him in faith to fulfil his promises can do so with c_____ and hope

Isaiah 51:9-10

Isaiah 51:11