

David Wallace – Sunday December 28, 2025

Matthew 22:34-46 – The heaviest commandment

Previously ...

Meet a _____ Pharisee

Becoming u _____

Then, s _____

What is the greatest commandment?

Deuteronomy 6.5

Leviticus 19.18

Personally, t _____

Loving God _____ neighbour

T _____ both are too great a b _____

Pharisees stress o _____

What if that is not e _____?

Matthew 12.7

Exodus 34.6-7

Psalm 139.23-24

Psalm 4.1

Matthew 11.28-30

Whose son is the messiah?

Feeling c _____

2 Samuel 7.13-14

Isaiah 11.1-2

How then can David call him Lord?

Psalm 110

A father is always foremost. No father calls his son Lord

We leave Eleazar p _____

The answer: the Messiah is David's son as a human descendant and His divine Lord as the eternal Son of God.

An _____ kind of Messiah and kingdom

A s _____ Messiah

A kingdom of God's rule in people's h _____

A Messiah for _____ people

Matthew 12.38-39

What happens when _____ stand before the mirror of God's greatest and heaviest commandments?