

Mark Tough – Sunday March 22, 2026
Matthew 26:57-27:10 – Trials and revelations

1) The trial of Jesus revealed that he was committed to f_____ God's plan for him to suffer and die for sinners

Matthew 26:57

a) Jesus did not speak up to d_____ himself

Matthew 26:59-63a

Isaiah 53:7

b) When Jesus did speak, he spoke t_____, undoubtedly aware that he would be condemned for blasphemy as a result

Matthew 26:63b-64a

Matthew 26:64b

Psalms 110:1 & 5-6

Daniel 7:13-14

Matthew 26:65-68

Matthew 27:1-2

c) The religious leaders who tried Jesus are revealed to be w_____ than J_____

Matthew 27:3-4a

Matthew 27:4b-5

Matthew 27:6-8

2) The trial of Peter revealed the w_____ of Peter's f_____ to Jesus

Matthew 26:33-35a

Matthew 26:57-58

Matthew 26:69-70

Matthew 26:71-72

Matthew 26:73-74a

Matthew 24:74b-75

3) The f_____ of everyone except for Jesus in Matthew 26:57-27:10 point to the need we all have for the s_____ that only Jesus provides

Romans 3:20

4) Peter's denials of Jesus reveal our need for God's s_____ to help overcome any f_____ that will prevent us from following Jesus faithfully

