

Site-Specific Risk Assessment

Customer:

Arrival time:

Location:

Date:

Type of site:

Industrial/Commercial/Agricultural ☐ Residential Building Site ☐ Private House ☐ Natural Structure ☐

Access:

Lorry to be parked on road * ☐ Driveway ☐ Building Site ☐ Off Road ☐

* If on the road, has the hirer made provision to cordon off pump area – Yes / No

Traffic Control ☐ Signs ☐ Cones ☐ Other ☐

Is access road suitable – Yes/ No (If no, hirer is responsible for recovery or damage to lorry)

Hirer is aware that any damage to the lorry which is caused by unsuitable conditions whilst entering/exiting site, may be chargeable ☐

Positioning and set up:

Is the ground suitable for concrete pump operation - Yes / No (If no, hirer needs to construct hard standing.)

Check room for stabilizer legs ☐ Check for open trenches, manholes etc. ☐ Check wind for boom ☐
Overhead lines/trees ☐ Scaffolding ☐ Buildings ☐ Access required over pipe - Yes / No

Are there any obstacles to be aware of when maneuvering the boom - Yes / No

Provision made for vehicles/pedestrians and all personnel aware of hazards ☐

Pumping operation:

Hirer is aware they are responsible for re-positioning of ground line ☐Hirer must ensure there are clear instructions between laying gang and pump operator ☐

Is a linesman required – Yes / No Has the hirer provided a linesman - Yes / No

Hirer is aware washout may be needed part way through if operator suspects concrete becoming unworkable ☐ All personnel must listen and act immediately if warnings/instructions are given by the pump operator ***

Washing out:

Has hirer made provision for wash out area - Yes / No Is water supply available - Yes / No Wash out off-site ☐If there is no wash out area available, hirer is aware an additional charge may apply ☐

Any other comments:

Please be aware that the pump operator's decision is final. If they feel the situation is not safe and/or the concrete mix is incorrect and unsuitable for pumping, then they are fully within their rights to refuse to continue the task until amendments have been made. We thank you for your co-operation in this matter. All hires are subject to the CPA terms and conditions and the understanding of the generic method statement/risk assessment.

Customer

Signed:

Name:

Date:

R Pomphrett Ltd

Signed:

Name:

Date: