

To ensure a safe learning environment for all students and staff, all classrooms/instructional areas will be locked during the instructional day. The requirement is inclusive of, and will also apply to, all classrooms in use during intersession/summer classes and in classes with substitute teachers.