ESSENTIAL CLAUSES AND CERTIFICATIONS

The following forms must be completed, signed, and included with Proposer’s RFP and Proposer must also be in full agreement and compliance of general essential clauses. Failure to return any pages requiring Proposer signature may cause proposal to be null and void.

Davis-Bacon Act
The Davis-Bacon and Related Acts apply to contractors and subcontractors performing on federally funded or assisted contracts in excess of $2,000 for the construction, alteration, or repair (including painting and decorating) of public buildings or public works. Davis-Bacon Act and Related Act contractors and subcontractors must pay their laborers and mechanics employed under the contract no less than the locally prevailing wages and fringe benefits for corresponding work on similar projects in the area. The Davis-Bacon Act directs the Department of Labor to determine such locally prevailing wage rates. The Davis-Bacon Act applies to contractors and subcontractors performing work on federal or District of Columbia contracts. The Davis-Bacon Act prevailing wage provisions apply to the “Related Acts,” under which federal agencies assist construction projects through grants, loans, loan guarantees, and insurance.

For prime contracts in excess of $100,000, contractors and subcontractors must also, under the provisions of the Contract Work Hours and Safety Standards Act, as amended, pay laborers and mechanics, including guards and watchmen, at least one and one-half times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 in a workweek. The overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act may also apply to DBA-covered contracts.

Funding Out

If funds become unavailable through lack of appropriations, legislative or executive budget cuts, amendment of the Appropriations Act, state agency consolidations, or any other disruption of current appropriations, Contractor will not hold liable ETCOG for payment or damages other than payment owed to Contractor for service already provided at the time of said notice.

contracting or seeking to contract with ETCOG to file a conflict of interest questionnaire (CIQ) if they have an employment or other business relationship with an officer of ETCOG or an ETCOG officer's close family member. The CIQ must be completed and filed with the proposal response if an employment or business relationship defined in the law exists.
