ETCOG GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

A. ETCOG reserves the right for any contract or service agreement resulting from the RFP to be contingent upon the continued availability of funding.

B. A response to this RFP does not commit or obligate ETCOG to award a contract nor to pay for any other costs incurred prior to the execution of a formal contract.

C. ETCOG reserves the right to cancel this RFP in part or in its entirety with no explanation required; and, also reserves the right if only one proposal is received to accept, reject, re-solicit, and/or extend the RFP by up to two (2) additional weeks from original bid submission date if deemed warranted.

D. ETCOG reserves the right to accept, reject or negotiate proposals received; and, to select the proposal it considers in its best interest based upon the requirements and descriptions outlined in this RFP; as well as, to vary or waive any provisions set forth in this RFP in the best interests of ETCOG and programs served.

E. ETCOG reserves the right to reject any and all bids and while it has the right to negotiate with the next highest ranked proposer, it is not required to do so and can re-procure the bid in ETCOG’s sole discretion.

F. ETCOG reserves the right to require oral presentations by any or all firms. However, ETCOG may make a contract award without oral presentation and or discussion with firms after RFP responses are received by ETCOG. Therefore, RFP responses should be submitted on the most favorable terms.

G. ETCOG reserves the right to request additional information and/or meet with representatives from responding Proposers to discuss submitted proposal, before and after RFP submission, all of which may be used in forming a recommendation for award and/or negotiation of a contractual agreement.

H. ETCOG reserves the right to contact any individual, agency, or employer listed in a Proposer submission, and any others who may have experience and/or knowledge of the potential proposer’s relevant performance/qualifications. ETCOG also reserves the right to negotiate the final terms of any agreement or contract with the proposer.

I. Pursuant to protocol to advise of the right to appeal, a protest must be submitted to ETCOG’s Executive Director within ten (10) calendar days of the time the basis of the protest became known and said protest(s) limited to: 1) violations of federal law or regulations; 2) violations of State or local law under the jurisdiction of State or local authorities; and 3) violations of ETCOG’s protest procedures for failing to review a complaint or protest. The protest must be submitted in writing and must identify the protestor, the solicitation being protested and specifically identify the basis for the protest, providing all pertinent information regarding the solicitation, contract and/or actions of ETCOG.

J. ETCOG reserves the right to make such additional investigations, as it deems necessary to establish the competence and financial stability of any potential proposer submitting a proposal.
K. ETCOG reserves the right to hold proposals for 90 days from submission without action.

L. ETCOG reserves the right to extend beyond the original 90-day period prior to an award if in its judgement, circumstances warrant such an extension.

M. ETCOG reserves the right to negotiate the final terms of any potential agreement or contract because of this RFP, to include but not limited to, the inclusion of the RFP and submitted proposal, and any essential clauses or certifications in this RFP. Proposal must have original signature of the person having the authority to bind the organization to a contract or it may be rejected for non-compliance.

N. If the execution of work to be performed by the Proposer requires hiring of subcontractors, it must clearly state this in the proposal. Subcontractors must be identified and the work they will perform must be defined. The proposal should provide the name, address, and Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) of the subcontractor. ETCOG will not refuse a proposal based upon the use of subcontractors; however, retains the right to refuse the subcontractors the proposer selected.

O. Proposers who are partnering with other companies or agencies must list the names of all service providers or joint providers and the amount to be spent by each partner. All subawarded costs must be itemized in the budget so it is clear how the funds will be allocated and spent by each partner. Subawards may be written independently with each of the organizations.

P. If proposer seeks to form a legal joint venture using a corporate identity for the partnership, ETCOG will require the individual’s corporate partners to accept liability for funds.

Q. ETCOG reserves the right to claim ownership of any proposal submitted in response to this RFP to be the property of ETCOG, and is not obligated to return proposal responses, binders or exhibits to Proposers. Proposer should not include proprietary information or trade secrets. Information submitted may be subject to disclosure under the Texas Public Information Act, it will be the responsibility of the Proposer to seek an exemption from disclosure and file any necessary documents with the Attorney General.

R. Conflict of interest is a serious issue. Proposers may not hire ETCOG management or support staff that were involved in the evaluation and/or selection process under this proposal. Proposers must sign and submit the Conflict of Interest Form (CIQ).

S. All ETCOG programs and employers must comply with Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO). Auxiliary aids/services are available, upon request.
