There's great work being done in the archdiocese to support the Church and all comers are invited to learn about it, get a pulse on what the St. Joseph Business Guild network is doing, and explore new possibilities. Quarterly dinners include ample amounts of networking, prayer, good food, formation, and fraternity.

This evening's focus is a novel and even inflammatory dive into the great American and Catholic roots we share, and, moreover, what great fruit can be gained from them now!

Come make connections, be fed, and be encouraged! September 17th at Holy Family Catholic Church; doors open at 5:00 PM. $17.76; free for clergy, unemployed, and students.

Please consider sharing your valuable time and talent

How many times do we shrink back from a challenge or an opportunity because we think we are not qualified? Or someone else is smarter, more experienced and would do a better job. This line of thinking often causes us to shrink rather than rise and step into our calling. If an opportunity comes your way that feels too big for you, remember that you are not the source of your success. God is. If something is meant for you, if it is within his will for you, God will indeed equip you to become who you need to be, to do what you need to do. God can supply you the competence and the confidence for every good work.
