Arise Shine

(Isaiah 60)
Words and music by Marty Goetz & Wendell Burton
© Singin In The Reign Music/ASCAP & Cross Purpose Music/ASCAP

A people in darkness
They stumble with eyes that cannot see
Alone in the night, they hope for the light, they long for the brightness

But on the horizon
He comes with the glory of the sun
Or the rush of a stream, to heal and redeem
His radiance gleaming

(Chorus)
Arise. Shine, your light has come
The glory of the Lord has risen upon you
Arise, shine, your light has come
Lift up your eyes and see, lift up your eyes and see!

Behold! The new Zion
Set up so high on His holy hill
A torch in the night, a city of light
Ablaze with His brightness

Oh, see your redeemer!
Hear His voice like the roar of a thousand seas
Awake you who sleep
Though the climb may be steep
I call to my people!

(Chorus)

See the scepter raised in Judah
Ruling kingdoms by His might!
See the star arise in Jacob! (Num. 24:17)
No more sun to rule by day, no more moon to rule by night
He will be your everlasting light!! (Rev. 21:23)

(Chorus)