(Esther)
Who am I that I should find myself right here, right now?
Who am I to try to save these lives—someway, somehow?
Can it be that you chose me—a girl who no one knew?
So afraid, unsure, not knowing—what to say, what to do—

(Mordecai)
For such a time as this—For such a time as this
Are you our help—are you our hope?
At such a time as this?
Is there before you now—a chance you dare not miss?
Could it be, you have come to the kingdom—
For such a time as this?

(Mordecai) You and I know - you're the one to go before the king
(Esther) How I fear- that He won't hear - the message that I bring
(M) I see you there, so young, so scared—
not knowing what will be
(E) If I should go, please tell my people—I've one plea—
pray for me

(Esther)
For such a time as this—For such a time as this
Is there a help—Is there a hope—At such a time as this?
Is there before me now—a chance I dare not miss
Could it be—I have come to the kingdom
For such a time as this?

(M) Will you find mercy there?
(E) Or will I perish—who can say?
(M+E) Still at this time we cannot keep silent
We will stand—We will pray!

(M) For such a time as this
(E) (Who am I, How could it be?)

(M) For such a time as this
(E) (That you would choose someone like me)
(M) There is a help
(E) (I'll go)
(M) There is a hope
(E) (And so)
(M) At such a time as this
(E) (I know I must be strong)

(M) There is before us now
(E) (Now that my purpose I can see)
(M) A chance we dare not miss
(E) (Nothing matters more to me)
(M) Could it be—
(M + E) We have come to the kingdom
For such a time as this?

There is before us now
A chance we dare not miss
Could it be, we have come to the kingdom
For such a time as this?
We have come to the kingdom
For such a time as this!
