He Who Trusts

(Psalm 32)
Words & Music By Marty Goetz/Wendell Burton
© 1994 Singin' in the Reign Music/Cross Purpose Music/ASCAP

These are periled times we live in, trouble everywhere
Weary hearts will often give in to this world's despair
But high and over all, our Father knows our every care
And in His Book, if you will look, you'll find His promise there

(Chorus)
He who trusts in the Lord
Mercy shall surround him
He who trusts in the Lord
Mercy shall surround him
Be glad in the Lord and rejoice
You upright in heart, lift up your voice
For great is His mercy toward all who trust in the Lord

Soon will be the time when we will see the Holy One
Oh how sweet to know that He'll complete what He's begun
And blessed is the man who stands forgiven in God's son
And blessed are they who in that day will hear Him say, "Well done"

(Chorus)

Gracious is He and slow to anger
His loving kindness has no end
With love to embrace both friend and stranger
Reaching out to one and all, who upon His name will call

(Chorus)

Mercy is His reward
For all who trust, for the pure and just
Who put their trust in the Lord
For all who trust for the pure and just who put their trust in the Lord