King of Kings

Jesus, where are you?
We want to sing, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Jesus, where are you?
We want to sing, Hallelujah, Hallelujah

You and me, look around
Don't see a thing, don't hear a sound
So we're wondering, have we really been found?
Or are we still lost?
And are we bound for that kingdom to come
Where everyone sings, you're King of Kings

And you're always the same, yesterday, today, and forever
And if we say your name, we can claim all that's good
Have you promised you would be here? Or have we misunderstood?

Jesus, where are you?
We want to sing, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Jesus, where are you?
We want to sing, Hallelujah, Hallelujah

You and me, swear He's gone
And there's no hope to stand upon
And oh how we grieve, till we hear that voice
That makes us rejoice
Say, 'I'll never leave, I'm not forsakin' ya, only makin' ya
Learn to believe, you'll mount up on wings to the mount where all of creation
Sings, I'm King of Kings.

Oh there you are, oh Jesus, hallelujah
Hallelujah, there you are
Oh Jesus, hallelujah

Hallelujah, all of creation sings

Jesus is King of Kings
