LORD in the Morning

LORD in the morning, I open my eyes
Reach to the skies, that's when my heart sighs…

Yeshua, Yeshua
Day by day I wake to find you near
Yeshua, I'm in awe that you
Morning after morning meet me here

Here to cover me with grace and mercy
Here beside me closer than my skin
Here to breathe on me just as you breathed on dust in Eden
So that life could begin

Yeshua, Yeshua
Once again I come to you for help
Yeshua, for you are the one
Who knows me better than I know myself

I need to walk after your presence
I need you now and 'til the end
I need to do for others what's been done for me
By my best friend – you call me 'friend'

I need to walk after your presence
I need you now and 'til the end
I need to be for your people
What you've always been to me – a friend!

Yeshua, Yeshua
Thank you for the gift of one more day
Yeshua, you show me
Show me what to do and what to say

I'll put you on just like a garment
You'll put me on just like a glove
And by your Spirit you and I will bless the children of this world with your love

Yeshua, you love me
‘How do I love you?’ that’s what I pray
Yeshua, my Messiah
How I long to follow you today

(And) How I hope ‘well done’ is what you’ll say
Just whisper one word and I’ll obey
Yeshua - you’re the life, the truth, LORD lead the way
