Of Him, Through Him, and To Him (Romans 11)

Oh how deep are the riches, of the wisdom and knowledge of God
And His ways, how unsearchable
And His judgments past finding out
For who has known His mind, who has been His counsel
From whom did He get all these things, they should be repaid

But of Him, and through Him, and to Him are all things
Of Him, and through Him, and to Him are all things

Oh what love has the Father, that He chose us to become like His son
Now behold, we are His children
Still not knowing just what we shall be
But when He appears, when He comes in glory
When He is revealed we know, we shall be like Him

For of Him, and through Him, and to Him are all things
Of Him, and through Him, and to Him are all things
To Him be the glory forever and ever
To him be the glory forever

But when He appears, when He comes in glory
When He is revealed we know that we shall be like Him

For of Him, and through Him, and to Him are all things
Yes of Him, and through Him, and to Him are all things
To Him be the glory forever and ever
To him be the glory forever, forever
Amen
