Psalm 19

Words and Music by Marty Goetz & Misha Goetz Hoyt
© 2026 Singin' in the Reign Music/Misha Goetz Music

VERSE 1
All Heaven's declarin' the glory of God
Day to day they are tellin' his story
Without any sound without speaking a word
Their message is clear, have you heard? Have you heard?

CHORUS
The law of the Lord is perfect
Converting the soul
And sure is His testimony making wise the simple
The heart rejoices knowing that His statutes are right
Enlightened is the eye by commandments so pure
The fear of the Lord is clean and will endure forever
The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether
And righteous altogether

VERSE 2
Yeshua your Word is more precious than gold
When you speak it is sweeter than honey
Your ways I will follow and never depart
Your voice is the sound in my heart, in my heart!

CHORUS
The law of the Lord is perfect
Converting the soul
And sure is His testimony making wise the simple
The heart rejoices knowing that His statutes are right
Enlightened is the eye by commandments so pure
The fear of the Lord is clean and will endure forever
The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether
And righteous altogether

BRIDGE
In the beginning He named all the stars
And if He knows their names, He surely knows ours

CHORUS
The law of the Lord is perfect
Converting the soul
And sure is His testimony making wise the simple
The heart rejoices knowing that His statutes are right
Enlightened is the eye by commandments so pure
The fear of the Lord is clean and will endure forever
The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether
And righteous altogether

The fear of the Lord is clean and will endure forever
And we are in the one who's true, and righteous altogether
And righteous altogether