Lord, you're my Shepherd, You meet every need
I find green pastures when Your voice I heed
By the still waters you lovingly lead
Shepherd of Israel

And in the presence of my enemy
A banqueting table You spread out for me
My cup runs over, Your oil flows free
Shepherd of Israel

Lead me, my Lord and my God
Use Your staff and Your rod
You know how I go astray
How I get lost, how I lose my way
When the shadows are beckoning me
Or I'm bound by some dark memory
But when I follow You, I look back and see
Your goodness and mercy are following me

For Your name's sake I make Your path my own
I'm part of Your flock and I walk not alone
Still others You call 'till You bring us all home
Shepherd of Israel

Lead me, my Lord and my God
Use Your staff and Your rod
You know how I go astray
How I get lost, how I lose my way
When the darkness is wrapped around me
Or I'm charmed by some voice I should flee
But when I follow You, I look back and see
Your goodness and mercy are following me

And O, what a miracle
How You restore my soul
Once a sad, lost lamb
Now safe in Your arms I am

Lead me, my Lord and my God
Use Your staff and Your rod
You know how I go astray
How I get lost, how I lose my way
But You find me, though far I may be
And remind me so tenderly
That when I follow You I'll look back and see
Your goodness and mercy are following me

Yes, when I follow You I look back and see

Only goodness and mercy are following me
