Shepherd's Song

©Marty Goetz Singing In the Reign Music/ASAP
©Tom Howard Hidden Passage Music/BMI

Come, my children, gather 'round
I will tell a story
About a simple shepherd boy
Who heard the angels sing
Once in these Judean hills
The sky was filled with glory
And echoed with a song of proclamation for a king

Hallelujah, hallelujah
Born in the city of David
There is a child whose name is Yeshua
He's the Messiah, the Savior

A night of fear and mystery
A night of wondrous joy
Led to a lowly stable
The Shepherd found the infant boy
Born in the town of Bethlehem
As the prophet did foretell
Could this son of Yoseph and Miryam
Be the one to shepherd Israel?

Hallelujah, hallelujah
Born in the city of David
There is a child whose name is Yeshua
He's the Messiah, the Savior

Through the years the shepherd
Watched the child grow
And the shepherd came to love him
And all who followed came to know
Yeshua held a promise
He was born to keep
Then they watched as that Good Shepherd
Laid his life down for His sheep

Though my story here is ending
Ever more my Shepherd King
Is the One I'll be proclaiming
As the angel's song I sing

Hallelujah, hallelujah
Born in the city of David
There is a child whose name is Yeshua
He's the Messiah, My Messiah
He's my Messiah

Hallelujah, hallelujah
Praise to the Shepherd of Israel
He is the One, His name is Yeshua!
He's the Messiah!
Our Savior!!