First you showed me the sky, and a bird flyin' high
Then a cross of shinin' white
Then the wind it blew, and it filled me with You
And made my soul take flight

Now you're everywhere, and you prove that you care
About everything I do
You take people I know, and you use them to show
Your love for me is true

Thank you, Jesus
Thank you, Jesus
You wait inside for me
Thank you, Jesus
Praise you, Jesus
You want to see me free

See me free, from all my selfish desires
Set my mind on a goal that is higher
Make my heart free from guilt, free from shame
Take my life, let it be in the glory of your name

I don't do all the good, that I know I should
Sometimes my darkness hides your light
Still your grace you bestow
'Cuz you want me to know, in my weakness is your might Yes in my weakness is your might

Thank you, Jesus
Thank you, Jesus
You wait inside for me
Thank you, Jesus
Praise you, Jesus
You want to see me free
You want to see me free
