What we do and why we are different from a traditional funeral home.

Alpha-Omega is an alternative option to a traditional funeral home. We offer the basic services for burial or cremation. Alpha Omega does not have the facilities that a full service funeral home does; however we can contract with a local funeral home to provide those requested services.

We operate Alpha-Omega with very little overhead. We have an office to make arrangements for burial or cremation. We provide very simple and basic services, without a large facility and numerous staff.
