Libraries play a critical role in building strong literacy skills in our communities.

Studies show that children who regularly participate in library reading programs are significantly more likely to maintain or improve their reading levels during the summer months.

Through your membership, the Friends of the Woodland Public Library help support:

-  Children's reading and storytime programs
-  Teen and family literacy initiatives
-  Summer reading programs for all ages
-  Author talks, cultural events, and educational programming

Your support helps ensure that everyone in Woodland has access to learning, discovery, and the lifelong benefits of literacy.

Just 20 minutes of reading a day can expose a child to nearly 1.8 million words each year. 📖

Libraries play a vital role in fostering that love of reading from an early age. Through storytimes, summer reading programs, and accessible book collections, the Woodland Public Library helps young readers build the skills that last a lifetime.

When you become a member of the Friends of the Woodland Public Library, you help support the programs and resources that make literacy accessible to our entire community.

Join us in supporting lifelong learning—become a Friend today.
