The Church celebrates the feast of St. Peter and St. Paul on June 29—two pillars of the early Church and powerful examples of faith, courage, and conversion. While their missions were different, their love for Christ was the same. Here are some simple and meaningful ways to celebrate their feast day at home!

Foods to Celebrate the Pillars of the Church

- Fish Dinner – Peter was a fisherman before Jesus called him to be a “fisher of men.” A simple fish dinner is a great nod to his story.
- Goldfish or Swedish Fish – Easy snacks for little ones to enjoy!

Saints Peter and Paul
June 29th, 2025

Today is the feast day of Saints Peter and Paul.
Today's second reading is part of a letter
Saint Paul wrote shortly before he was martyred.
What did he say?
Look at the picture in the mirror to find out!

True or False: Who Knows Who Jesus Is?

Jesus asked His disciples "Who do men say that the Son of man is?" See if you know how they responded.

1. The apostles said, "Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." True or False?
2. The apostles said, "Some say Methuselah, others say Barnabas, and still others say Solomon." True or False?
3. Then Jesus asked the disciples Who THEY thought He was. True or False?
4. Peter said, "You are John the Baptist resurrected from the dead!" True or False?
5. Peter said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." True or False?
6. Jesus told Peter that the Father in Heaven had told him Who He was. True or False?
7. Jesus said to Peter, "...you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of Hell will not prevail against it." True or False?

Pre-Mass Reflection and Discussion Questions

Consider first taking an inductive approach to liturgical catechesis (NDC, 29) that focuses on the young person's experiences before, during, and after the encounter with God in the Liturgy.

- What are the 1-2 things that are dominating your attention and thought today? What can you ask of God in the Liturgy to address these things?
- Has God been at work in your daily life? What evidence is there that God is communicating with you daily? How do you expect this communication to continue during the Liturgy?
