Book of the Innocents: Remembering Children Who Have Passed Away in Infancy

In conjunction with the Pro-Life Mass on January 22nd, the St. Joseph Pro-Life Committee has placed the Book of the Innocents in front of the altar of the Blessed Mother. In this Book of the Innocents, you are invited to list the name of the child you lost, their lifespan, along with any thoughts, prayers or yearnings you may have. The entire St. Joseph Family joins with you in sharing your sorrow and celebrating the love you have for your child.

The book will remain in church throughout the month of January.

“The death of every relative and friend diminishes the world and robs us of something wonderful in our lives. To lose a child, however, is to plumb the depths of human sorrow. Grief is magnified by the rupture of the strong physical and emotional bonds that exist between parent and child. A child’s death deprives their parents of a lifetime of love, joy, shared experiences, and pride in their achievements.”

~Anthony Cardinal Bevilacqua, Archbishop of Philadelphia, June 28, 2023

Prayer to MAKE Disciples

Ever loving God, maker of all good things, you made us in your image and called us through baptism. Give us now the grace to be made into your disciples, and grant that in being so made, we will do as you have commanded to go and make other disciples as we catechize, evangelize, and put our faith into action. Through the intercession of our patron,

St. Francis Xavier, St. Joseph,
the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints,
we humbly make our prayer.

Amen.

CONFESSION

“Our conversion moves us to a deeper life of faith in Jesus and a desire to shape our lives according to His Gospel. In Jesus, we have a personal Savior who wants to forgive our sins so that we can live freely as beloved children of God.

Yet sometimes something holds us back from seeking the very mercy God so freely offers. To accept the grace of forgiveness, we must not only acknowledge our weakness but also recognize the tricks of the Devil, who wants more than anything to keep us trapped in sin. At times, we may be tempted to think, falsely, that our choices are not sinful because they do not appear to harm others. Or, over time, we might come to believe, also falsely, that we have fallen so deep into sin that we are beyond God’s reach. Both ways of thinking are simply not true.

I want to say emphatically and joyfully that Jesus is the Incarnation of Divine Mercy. By dying on the Cross in an act of pure, sacrificial love, He conquered both sin and death. In the Sacrament of Confession, it is Jesus Himself who wipes away our sins when we confess them with sincere and contrite hearts and make a firm resolve to change our ways. Through the absolution of the priest, we receive the grace of new life.

When we think about the struggle with personal sin, perhaps no one comes to mind more readily than St. Augustine of Hippo (354–430). Through the experience of repeated repentance and conversion, St. Augustine learned to abandon his worldly pursuits and overcome his moral failings to experience a profound spiritual transformation.

As the story of St. Augustine illustrates, our path of discipleship begins with a simple but humbling admission: I am a sinner. And while we are sinners, let us strive to be saints. Only then will we begin to taste the fullness of being made into true disciples of Jesus. When we desire that for ourselves, we will naturally want it for others too.

If it has been a while since you have experienced the abundant mercy of God by confessing your sins in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation, I invite you to pray for the courage and grace to return and seek it out.”

~ Make Disciples by Bishop Ronald Hicks 2025

Please send down the Holy Spirit upon all peoples to give them the love, courage, strength, and willingness to respond to the invitation to Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration.
