Why do Catholics need to go to Mass every Sunday?

Answer:

The heart of the Church's instruction that we are to attend Mass on Sundays goes back to the Third Commandment: "Take care to keep holy the sabbath day as the LORD, your God, has commanded you" (Deuteronomy 5:12). Although the Jewish People celebrate the Sabbath on Saturday, the first generations of Christians began to observe the sabbath on Sunday, recognizing how important it is for Christians to celebrate the day that Jesus rose from the dead. As the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults observes, "Sunday extends the celebration of Easter throughout the year ... It makes present the new creation brought about by Christ" (364).

The focus of our Sunday should be the celebration of the Eucharist in the Mass. This is our time to be formed by God's Word and nourished at the table of the Lord, becoming prepared to live out and share our faith in the week that follows. In his encyclical, Dies Domini, Pope Saint John Paul II reminded us that Christians "cannot live their faith or share fully in the life of the Christian community unless they take part regularly in the Sunday Eucharistic assembly" (no. 81). This is why the Church teaches us that Sunday Mass is a non-negotiable part of being a Christian (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2192).

Beyond being a time of worship, we should also remember that Sunday is intended to be a day of rest, when we make time for recreation, for sharing meals, and enjoying the company of friends and family. Sunday is given to us as a day to take stock of and enjoy the blessings that God has given us (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2187). Pope Francis reminded us, "The day of rest, centered on the Eucharist, sheds its light on the whole week, and motivates us to greater concern for nature and the poor" (Laudato Si', no. 237).

March with St. Joseph May 4, 2025

"On behalf of St. Joseph Patron of the Church Council, I wish to convey our sincere thanks for your participation-either in person or remotely-for the success of our first annual March with St. Joseph.

By all accounts it was a wonderful event with 60 enthusiastic men and boys on foot and several more in support vehicles, from the magnificent High Mass, at St. Joseph Church in Rockdale, and blessing by Fr. Magiera on our departure to the gracious welcome, reflection and Litany by Fr. Roger Kutzner at our destination of St. Joseph in Joliet, everything went according to plan. There was also an untold array of impressions of the public who witnessed this faithful group throughout the 3.6 mile route, as well as the graces received by those in our prayer intentions and thanks to the intercession of our Patron Saint.

We raised several hundred dollars toward the ultrasound machine initiative which we will convey to our Brother Knights at Our Lady Queen of Apostles who are spearheading fundraising efforts for this noble cause. This March was inspired by the Knights of Columbus of France who draw thousands of participants each year in faithful honor of St. Joseph. With humble beginnings, may we grow and improve over time."

Ite ad Joseph!

Sincerely,

Brian Holuj
