Mayor Gray informed the Council of the need of a Non-Profit group to obtain a Tax ID number to fundraise for city projects, community donations, etc. "Campbellsburg On Track" has been formed with the following members: Angela Gray-Chairman, Kim Boyer-Treasurer, Ashley Gray-Vice Chairman, Andrea Ochsner-Secretary.

MAYOR'S REPORT

Mayor Gray gave a Boo Bash update. We have several vendors and food trucks. There will be no haunted house this year due to no help. Wanted to have a corn maze but there is no corn and has soybeans.

Mayor Gray informed the Council that he has asked the County Judge Executive to purchase the EMS building to be used as the Public Works Maintenance building. In order to do so, an appraisal is needed. We are in the process of trying to find appraisers to do complete the process.

Mayor Gray stated that the house on corner of 2nd and Main Street remains in violation and the City is ready to file a complaint.

Lastly, the Mayor addressed the property with the trailer abandoned on Campbellsburg Road across from the cemetery. Wishes are to have torn down.

Adjournment:

The motion was made by Councilman John Suter and seconded by Councilman Kevin Collins and duly carried to stand in adjournment.
