Happy Friday and happy early Thanksgiving. Today will be the last newsletter until we return from break. It was wonderful to see everyone today at the annual FEAST. Thank you to chairperson, Mrs. Szabelski, your P.T.C. and everyone who helped make this event a success. Please know that unopened trays at the end of the event have been delivered to MCREST, a southeastern organization that helps the homeless and needy. They have benefited from this great feast for the past few years. If you were here in the first sitting, you may have noticed a special guest. Archbishop Emeritus Vigneron was in attendance. He was gracious enough to lead the meal in grace! If you did not know, Archbishop is an alumnus of Immaculate Conception and very proud of our/his school!

We are sad to announce to the community that Ms. Sugars, 1st grade teacher, has accepted a new teaching position through National Heritage Academies in Canton, MI. Please join me in congratulating Ms. Sugars and wishing her God's blessings in her new assignment. Starting Monday, Mrs. Wojtoviets, who is already an integral part of the classroom as a paraprofessional, will be our long-term substitute along with Mrs. DiBattista, a current tutor and school substitute. Together they will ensure a smooth transition in the classroom. This model will allow for both to capitalize on their experiences and different areas of expertise. I have posted the first-grade position and will begin interviews as soon as possible to find a qualified candidate that will best serve your children. I will update you as soon as a replacement is selected.

Our school play has been announced. We are performing ANNIE at the Anchor Bay High School auditorium on May 15 & 16. Mark your calendars! The students attended tryouts this week with call backs yesterday. The CAST LIST will be sent out/posted on November 26th at 3pm. Congratulations to everyone involved no matter what your role. Listening to the practice singing before tryouts, at recess, and in the hallways shows amazing potential! This is a great Immaculate Conception TRADITION!

Basketball season begins the week of December 1st. Led by coaches Ms. Barch (girls JV), Ms. Balash-DeGeorge (girls Var), Mr. Joyce & Joyce (boys JV) and Mrs. Whitenight (boys Var), we're looking toward an exciting season. Ms. Ricard and Mrs. VanTiem will be shouting out loud leading our cheer team during the boys' games. The schedule is almost completed and will be shared with the coaches and families soon.

Next Tuesday, the school will hold a prayer service in lieu of our weekly school Mass as we will not be here the Friday after Thanksgiving. Led by 5th grade, the students will have time to reflect on the gifts in their lives and give thanks to all the people and things in their lives.

To continue sharing the 10 Ways to defend our Faith, Shed light, not Heat, as Christians, we are called to shed the light on difficult topics and represent the Church. If you come to discussion to shed light rather than heat, your emphasis will be completely different. Stay calm. As Pope Francis's encyclical Lumen Fidei explains, this composed approach may just disarm and open a door to the light of Faith, which illuminates everything.

Happy Thanksgiving,

Lawrence Ricard - Principal

7th Grade News from Mrs. Yaros

Saints, cemeteries, and vocations, oh my! These last few weeks, 7th grade has been focusing on many things- All Saints' Day, All Souls' Day, and celebrating vocations. We celebrated All Souls' with our annual "Bury the Dead" service project with the 5th-8th grades. Students not only cleaned the headstones of our parish cemetery, but also prayed for the souls at the end of our project. This year, we were even graced with the presence of a bald eagle while we worked!

The 7th grade has also been learning about vocations. Fr. Craig Giera from the Office of Priestly Vocations visited 7th and 8th grade on October 30th and held a Q and A about vocations. We've also spent a great deal of time in class learning and talking about different vocations and thinking about what theirs might be - marriage, single life, or religious life. This week we are also hosting the vocations cross in our classroom. We will pray for an increase in vocations and discernment of our own throughout the year.

Back again are the saint pumpkins (and gourds) this year! Each 7th grader dressed up their pumpkin as a saint and they are on display in the school. They will also be on display this week at the Thanksgiving Feast. Be a light; be a saint!
