Pride is a celebration, a riot, an act of resistance, a chance to reflect on where we are now and how we get closer to the future we imagine. It's also a practice. So here's the invitation: Faith communities - find one or two things to shift. A practice, a policy, a posture. Don't wait for the "right" time. Individuals - nudge yourself toward a topic that makes you uncomfortable and stay with it long enough to really absorb something new. Queer folks - celebrate however and whenever you can. Rest when you need to. You don't have to earn your place - you just being is valid. Allies - stand up for an issue that matters to you, even when it's scary. Especially then. It makes a huge difference. However you mark this time, you're part of this community, and we're glad you're here.
