Dear Church,

As summer is now in full swing and folks are traveling and enjoying time with family, let us redouble our commitments to making manifest the fruit of the spirit wherever we go, whatever we do, whoever we're with.

Having said that, I invite you to linger over the list of fruits and identify which fruits seem to come most naturally to you right now, and which seem to be the most difficult:

Love

Joy

Peace

Patience

Kindness

Generosity

Goodness

Faithfulness

Gentleness

Self-control

We can never think too long about these virtues and never be too committed to seeing them borne out in our daily lives.

So may we meditate upon these fruits this summer, and may we demonstrate them everywhere we go!

All my love,

Austin

During May, we focused on the Cleo Bailey Experiment. Continue to stay up to date with them by subscribing to their newsletter or following them on Facebook. This month we are focusing on the LOT project. LOT is an acronym for Least of These, a reference to Matthew 25:40. The LOT Project seeks to cultivate intentional relationships with those in need, to build connections to the opportunities in our community, and to serve our neighbors in creative and empowering ways. We provided and helped serve a delicious dinner of baked ziti, salad, and brownies. Please also remember to be in prayer for our youth this week who are (as you are reading this) at Passport Camp at Converse University. Thank you for your support! ~Lucy

Our 2nd-5th graders took a mystery trip this month to Flying Rabbit Adventures where we tested our limits and pushed ourselves out of our comfort zones! Then we went to see the phenomenal Toy Story 5. It was such a great day together, but we were all wiped out at the end of the day! Our widows enjoyed a day together to eat at Sole on the Green and then to have ice cream. It's always a wonderful time together each summer. Don't forget, we will not have Sunday school on July 5th. We will combine for July 12th & 19th and then enjoy a morning of biscuits and bingo on July 26th. ~ Anna Kate

July Emphases

1 Samuel 12:23

God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you.

We must pray without ceasing for the needs of individuals, our community, our leaders, and our church.

Mission Trip to Kentucky

We are planning a mission trip to Corbin, Kentucky November 8th – November 12th to assist CBF Field Personnel Scarlette Jasper with the Christmas Shoebox Ministry. Scarlette hopes for 5000 Shoeboxes to distribute to those living in persistent poverty in 8 counties in Kentucky. Scarlette shares that a “Christmas Shoebox is the only gift the majority of the children will receive this year.” For more information please call Becky Lynch (864.376.6017).
