Scholarship & Awards

Emily Barnes has been a registered nurse for 50 years. Her passion for nursing and her expertise in the field led her to become involved with numerous community-based organizations. Emily earned a BSN from the City University of New York, Medgar Evers College and later specialized in areas of neonatal/pediatric intensive care; hemodialysis; medical intensive care; coronary and surgical units. Nurse Emily Barnes became an active member of Theta Chi Chapter, Inc. of Chi Eta Phi Sorority Inc., in 1998. She is currently the Co-Chair of the Community Service Committee and assists her sorors with fundraising and all manner of chapter activities. Emily Barnes, holds Other professional memberships; she volunteers for the Queens Hospital Auxiliary, National Council of Negro Women, and at Calvary Baptist Church's Health Ministry. Emily is said to be truly a community champion, Emily, however, affirms that her most fulfilling role is being a mother and grandmother to her three daughters and four grandsons.
