Holy Disciples Volunteer Spotlight

Duncan, Abby & Patrick Crawford

We extend our heartfelt thanks to Duncan, Abby, and Patrick Crawford, whose dedication and hard work shine within our Holy Disciples church community. This amazing family has contributed in countless ways over the last year, by keeping our campus beautifully maintained through regular mowing, raking, hanging up Christmas lights on the gazebos, setting up for Christmas and Easter Masses, volunteering with Faith Formation, VBS, altar serving, singing in the choir, and so much more!

The Crawfords give their time and talent again and again, always with generous hearts. We are profoundly grateful for everything they do to make Holy Disciples more welcoming, beautiful, and connected. Thank you, Crawford family — your stewardship of time and talent makes a difference, more than words can express!

Sunday Gospel Reflection

February 15, 2026

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 5:17-37

A few years into my priesthood, I hit a wall. I had taken on too many commitments: Masses, meetings, ministries, projects. I couldn't keep up. I was double-booking, forgetting things, running late, and letting people down. My boss at the time, a wise priest, and our shared secretary, noticed. For my birthday, the two gave me a stack of 100 flashcards, each with one word printed in a different language: "NO." It was funny, but also painfully true. If I couldn't say no, my yes was in danger.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus says, "Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.' Anything more is from the Evil One" (Matthew 5:37). He's not just giving advice about polite speech. He's showing us something about the freedom of Christian discipleship. The follower of Christ is called to speak clearly, simply, and honestly. There is joy in that kind of freedom.

The Church Fathers often linked this kind of straightforward truthfulness with spiritual maturity. The devil is the father of lies, but Jesus is the Word made flesh. When we hedge, flatter, exaggerate, or avoid, we open space for the shadows to creep in. That little stack of flashcards reminded me that God does not want us enslaved to the expectations of others or to the fear of disappointing them. He wants us to enjoy the peace of saying yes and meaning it, and saying no, and meaning it, too.

Lenten Challenge: Practice one moment of honest, peaceful speech this week. Maybe it's a sincere "yes" to something important, or a humble "no" to something you cannot do. Let it be a quiet step into the freedom Jesus offers.

— Father John Muir ©LPI

In Timbiamgou, northern Togo, pastoralist Namguitié Lawane struggled with frequent livestock illness and a lack of pasture during the dry season. Through Catholic Relief Services' Naatann Fraternity Connector project, he received practical training in animal health and livestock feed production. "We learned how to make feed and use mineral licks, and my animals have been healthier ever since," he says. The project supports community resilience and social cohesion in the Togo-Burkina Faso border region.
