*February 8th, 2026
Honoring married couples and building a culture of life and love that begins with supporting and promoting marriage and the family.
(USCCB)*

Almighty and eternal God,
You blessed the union of married couples so that they might reflect the union of Christ with his Church:
look with kindness on them.

Renew their marriage covenant,
increase your love in them,
and strengthen their bond of peace so that, with their children,
they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

looks beyond itself to engage in mission and evangelization. A parish is not a place to retreat from the troubles and challenges that are present in our broader community and our world.
Rather, it is a place to join with others to be nourished in our life in Christ, from which we are sent into the world to make a difference, alleviate suffering, care for the afflicted and advocate for the voiceless. In service of others, especially the poor, we encounter Christ.From Partners in the Gospel:

Sunday Gospel Reflection

February 8, 2026
5th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 5:13-26

I recently learned why zebras have stripes. Scientists used to think it was for camouflage, but new research suggests something more interesting: the stripes help zebras blend in with one another. When a predator looks at a herd, the overlapping stripes make it hard to single out one animal. But if a researcher spray-paints a dot on just one zebra, predators lock on it and eventually attack. The lesson? In the wild, blending in is protection. Standing out can be dangerous.

Human beings are not so different. Most of us would rather blend in than stand out, especially when it comes to our faith. We know that giving bold witness to Jesus — through our words, values, or public choices — can make us targets for criticism, isolation, or judgment. That's why Jesus' words in today's Gospel are so challenging: "You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden" (Matthew 5:14).

A city on a hill draws attention. It also draws fire. But that's part of the cost of discipleship. Jesus doesn't call us to be tribal or boastful. He calls us to stand in the open with humble confidence, so that people might see our good deeds and glorify our Father in heaven. Today, let's ask for the courage not just to believe in Christ, but to be seen believing in him.

In Timbiamgou, northern Togo, pastoralist Namguitiéne Lawane struggled with frequent livestock illness and a lack of pasture during the dry season. Through Catholic Relief Services' Naatann Fraternity Connector project, he received practical training in animal health and livestock feed production. "We learned how to make feed and use mineral licks, and my animals have been healthier ever since," he says. The project supports community resilience and social cohesion in the Togo-Burkina Faso border region.
