Care & Prepare

Catholic Guidance for End-of-Life Decisions

Faithful Decisions, Compassionate Care, and the Dignity of the Human Person

Join us for a 2–3 hour seminar that will explore Catholic teaching and practical guidance for facing serious illness, end-of-life decisions, and the care of our loved ones. This workshop will help you gain the knowledge and resources to make faithful, informed decisions before a crisis occurs.

PRESENTER

Fr. Richard Libby

Pastor, Saint Helena of the Cross

Fr. Richard Libby is a priest of the Diocese of Corpus Christi and an experienced teacher, presenter, and pastoral leader. He holds a Certificate in Bioethics from the National Catholic Center for Bioethics and will guide us through Catholic teaching and practical considerations for making faithful decisions at the end of life.
