Numerous saints have held a deep devotion to the Poor Souls, many of whom were mystics, and received visions of them pleading for prayers. Among them, are:

- St. Gertrude the Great, a 13th-century mystic, is known for her deep devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Holy Souls. A Benedictine nun, her life centered on the Rule of St. Benedict in a pattern of prayer, work, and charity. She studied the Faith and wrote extensively in Latin, and she was blessed with many mystical encounters with Jesus.
- St. Catherine of Genoa, born in the mid-15th century, was particularly devoted to the holy souls and is now considered their patron saint. She too had many mystical visions, which she recorded in her book, The Treatise on Purgatory. St. Catherine experienced within her soul a real purgatory and had a deep understanding of what the Poor Souls experience and suffer there. She was given profound insights into the relationship between these suffering souls and God, the reasons why they suffer, and the fact that these Holy Souls willingly embrace Purgatory to be made perfectly pleasing in the sight of God.
- Blessed Stanislaus Papczyński was a priest and founder of the Marian Order in the latter part of the 17th century. Fr. Papczynski was given three mystical visions, one of deceased soldiers imploring prayers for their souls and two visions of the suffering in Purgatory. After the second vision of Purgatory, Fr. Papczynski was deeply troubled in spirit and implored his community,

"I beg you, brothers, pray for the souls in Purgatory, [sic] because they suffer unbearable tortures."

After this, the charism of the Marian Fathers, already focused on the Last Things, developed a greater emphasis on assisting the poor souls. To this day the Marian Fathers provide and encourage assistance to the poor souls through prayers, good works, and the Sacrifice of the Mass.
