Celebrating National Vocations Awareness Week

November 1 to November 7, 2026

"Each of you has a personal vocation which He has given you for your own joy and sanctity. When a person is conquered by the fire of His gaze, no sacrifice seems too great to follow Him and give Him the best of ourselves. This is what the saints have always done, spreading the light of the Lord … and transforming the world into a welcoming home for everyone." ~ Pope Benedict XVI

"Vocation" means "a call." Holiness is everyone's primary vocations. God calls very one of us to a life of holiness. As Catholics, we also believe God calls individuals to fulfill certain roles in the Church, both for their own holiness, and the good of the entire Body of Christ. What is your calling?

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time: Stay Awake & Ready

The 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds us to stay alert and live with faith. The readings speak about wisdom, hope, and being prepared for what is to come. They teach us that following God means paying attention and being ready to meet Him at any moment.

- Seeking Wisdom: Wisdom is always there for those who look for it. The first reading shows that wisdom brings peace and helps people make good choices.
- Being Watchful: The wise virgins in the Gospel are ready when the bridegroom arrives. This reminds people to stay prepared for God's coming.
- Hope in Resurrection: The second reading tells believers not to grieve like those with no hope. Jesus' resurrection shows that the dead will rise again.
- Personal Responsibility: The foolish virgins do not bring enough oil and miss the feast. This shows that each person must take care of their own faith life.
- Unexpected Timing: The bridegroom arrives at a surprising hour. This teaches that people do not know when God will come, so they must always be ready.

The message of the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A is clear. Be wise, be prepared, and trust in God's promises.

Here are a few steps we can take to dedicate November to the Poor Souls.

1. Visit a cemetery the first 8 days of November to obtain a Plenary Indulgence each day for a poor soul. Keep going there through the month and beyond, saying prayers for the dead while there.
2. Make sacrifices for the poor souls by having a Mass said for them or praying a Rosary, a novena, or the Divine Mercy Chaplet.
3. As a family activity, the children can help make a poster listing all the dearly departed. We can put this on display so our family can be reminded to pray for our loved ones throughout November.
4. Learn more about Purgatory by reading the Catechism and other writings of the saints.
5. Have family discussions about death, preparing for death, Catholic funerals and burials, and the Sacrament of the Sick.
6. Go to Confession regularly to make sure we are always in a state of grace so we can gain an indulgence for a poor soul and take care of our own.
