Bishop's Stewardship Appeal 2026

for the Diocese of Corpus Christi

One Body of Christ, Together Sent to Serve

Our 2026 Bishop's Stewardship Appeal goal is $26,633.00. As of October 16, 62 of our families have donated a total of $23,436. We're now at 88% of our goal. Thank you to all who've made this possible. If you have yet to make a donation, please take time now. We still have envelopes in the pews, or you can donate online by scanning the QR code.

Together, as Catholics across the Diocese, let's continue to make a difference in helping the many diocesan ministries in our wider community.

When you visit our website (at st-george-parish.org), you can find the weekly bulletin in color, upcoming event information, links to the diocese and other useful sites, our church history, and more. You'll be able to view our church calendar, access online giving, and see Mass times.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Love our Neighbor as God Loves us

….In today's reading of Exodus, the laws focus on how we treat the vulnerable in society, how we treat our neighbors. The people of God in Exodus experience systematic oppression in Egypt and God hears their cry and shows them compassion. It is because God is compassionate that the people of God are instructed to enact the same compassion that God showed them in their oppression.

We love our neighbor because God loves us. God shows us compassion so we must show compassion to those around us. Our compassion must come from the understanding that we too were once vulnerable. We are responsible for treating the stranger with care because we too were once a stranger. We are responsible for listening to those who cry out to God because we too have cried out.

….Because we believe in a God that hears our cries, we must hear the cries of those around us. Our love of our neighbor must be just like our love of God. It is through the treatment of our neighbors, those who are most vulnerable, that we live a holy life. These are the instructions Jesus clarifies for us, the people of God, on what it truly means to live a life set apart, a holy life….(Condensed; Author: Eilis Leptien; U.S. Catholic)

Understand, Live, and Share Your Faith

The dedication of October to the Holy Rosary is a rich tradition that opens our hearts to consider the beauty and efficacy of a prayer given to us by Our Lady, Herself. It echoes the cry of The Lord, "If anyone thirst, let him come to me and drink" (John 7:37). The Rosary is a prayer that moves mountains and also a meditation that permeates us with the goodness of God's Providence. Each bead of the Rosary becomes a pathway to reflection, contemplation, and a profound connection with the Lord and His Blessed Mother. Let the Our Fathers and Hail Marys reverberate and linger with the reminder that the dedication to the Holy Rosary is not confined to a single month but extends throughout the year. May we faithfully carry on the practice of this cherished devotion specifically requested by the Queen of Heaven to draw us into communion with Christ, convert sinners, and restore the culture to Christ.

Several books providing valuable insights for those interested in deepening their understanding of this devotion of the Holy Rosary:

- Champions of the Rosary: The History and Heroes of a Spiritual Weapon, by Donald H. Calloway, MIC, delves into the history of the Rosary and many renowned saints who Championed this prayer;
- Holy Rosary – St. Josemaria Escriva – Casa Maria Bookstore, a devotional book of prayer and meditations;
- The Rosary, by Bishop Robert Barron, is an essential book for anyone hoping to gain a better understanding of the Rosary, a stronger commitment to praying it, and a deeper appreciation of its power;
- Rosary Meditations from Mother Teresa of Calcutta – Casa Maria Bookstore, a devotional book of prayer and meditations;
- The Secret of the Rosary, by St. Louis de Montfort, describes the many benefits of the Rosary and how to say it with true devotion.
