NOTTS RAINBOW REVIEW

QUEER HUSTLE TAKEOVER

QUEERISH
UNNAMED DRAG
QUEER-UP DUCK
QUEER NOTTS ZINE

THROUGHOUT OCTOBER

@queerishnotts will be serving up the incredible world of voguing, waacking and ballroom to the Hustle! In the lead up to the fest, there'll be workshops to help prepare your routines. On the day of the Hustle, there will be talks about the scene and a @queerishnotts ballroom with judges, DJs and loads of energy!

Unnamed Drag X Hockley Hustle

The Lord Roberts will be taken over by @unnamed_drag again at HH25! In the safe hands of @artholethom prepare for a big Sunday funday, with games upstairs and in the garden (should the weather allow it), sit-down drag performances in the infamous Prohibition Bar and a healthy dose of drag-karaoke to finish the night

Queer-up Duck X Hockley Hustle

@queerupducknotts has asked the Notts community to nominate the Queer-scene makers of the city. Those selected will be photographed for a display to be exhibited at the Broadway Gallery before the festival, celebrating the scene-makers and their incredible work

Queer Notts Zine X Hockley Hustle

The brilliant Jade Bramley is creating a @queernotts_zine celebrating Nottingham's Queer music scene, with interviews, features, pictures and more! The zines will be distributed in the build-up and on the day to get everyone up to speed on who's who and what's what!

Tickets for Hockley Hustle are available from the Queerish website.
