- Child Disability Living Allowance is a benefit you may be able to claim for a child who needs extra personal care, supervision or watching over due to illness or disability
- ♦ The child needs to be under the age of 16 when you first make a claim for
- ♦ Child Disability Living Allowance isn't means tested which means you can have a high income and/or savings and this will not affect eligibility
- It is usually claimed by you; the child's parent or guardian
- ♦ Child Disability Living Allowance isn't taxable
- ♦ If Child Disability Living Allowance is awarded, this can lead to an increase in your benefit entitlement (where applicable) such as Child Tax Credits or Universal Credit
- ♦ Your child does not need a diagnosis to qualify, although this can be supportive of an application in some cases

If you think you may be eligible, contact us—we can advise around eligibility and can help to complete the form. If you want to make a claim yourself, call 0800 121 4600
