From Pastor Jim

Bakhmut Brad, also known as Brad Hendrickson, son of Rev. Sheryl Campbell, grew up in Lookout Mountain on the Tennessee/Georgia border, as well as time in Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin and North Dakota. Brad is a son of two pastors who obviously moved a lot. When Brad was done with high school, he escorted his mother “down the aisle” to marry Rev. Mike Campbell at the Iowa home of Sheryl’s mother, Evie, and father, Jim Eash. Then Brad went out on his own to Minnesota, New York, Maine and Ukraine. Yes, that’s right, Ukraine!

Brad found work in common or “normal” businesses ...restaurants, UPS and even selling and repairing guitars. But his life changed when the Russian invasion of Ukraine began in February of 2022.

Suddenly, Brad felt a tugging in his heart to respond in a way not many people are willing to do. He became a humanitarian aid worker in the throes of one of the biggest challenges in our world today, the war in Ukraine. He did not sign up with an organization but simply went as an individual and offered his services to those who had need. Driving around in his Toyota Land Cruiser, Brad served in Ukraine for over a year. Before the Russian invasion began, Bakhmut was a city of 71,000; in the aftermath of many bombings and attacks by Russian forces, the population decreased to 12,000.

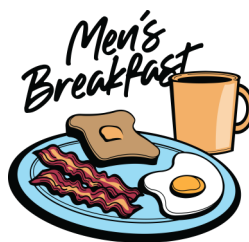

While there, Brad believed he had two primary jobs: delivering aid and evacuating people out of life-threatening situations. With humility, he will tell you, “I am just Brad from the states. A guy who has had a lot of jobs, some with emergency medical training.” The most recent job he had before his departure to Ukraine was as a UPS truck driver in Maine. Within weeks, he was driving routes few would dare to take ... under bombardment at times and mostly alone. He answered rescue calls that others could not or would not. He once said, “I’m sort of the last mile guy in a lot of different places.”

When reflecting upon his time in Bakhmut and other areas in Ukraine, Brad will tell you that he conducted well over 100 evacuations. The real-life stories he tells are filled with challenges and difficulties, but also the presence of God’s Spirit leading Brad to the people who needed him at just that moment. The stories Brad tells will leave you with a sense of joy and accomplishment. One story you definitely will want to hear is how Brad intervened in the life of an older couple, which happened on Thanksgiving Day. The couple whom Brad rescued on that occasion felt that, in Brad, God had sent an angel.

I encourage everyone to join me in hearing these incredible stories that arose out of one man answering God’s call to serve. The story of how he got there; how he maneuvered in a war-torn area and what he accomplished is an amazing story of service and sacrifice. It is a story that Brad will share at the next Men’s Breakfast on Tuesday, January 20, at 8:00 a.m. in Fellowship Hall. Please do sign up in advance so we have plenty of food and chairs. Both gentlemen and ladies are invited to come. You truly will be inspired by what you hear.

Men of the Church

The next Men’s Breakfast is on Tuesday, January 20, at 8:00 a.m. in Fellowship Hall, with a wonderful breakfast prepared by Echelon Catering.

For January, our guest speaker will be Brad Hendrickson, son of Rev. Sheryl Campbell. He will share stories about his humanitarian work in Ukraine. Men and women are welcome to attend.

Please sign up during Fellowship Hour on Sundays or in the church office. Cost of breakfast is $7.

From Pastor Linda

Each January, I am reminded of these words by Howard Thurman:

*When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock,*

*The work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among brothers,
To make music in the heart.*

These words remind us that Christmas is so much more than a frenetic season of activity and consumption. For us to experience the hope and promise that is offered in the birth of Christ, we must receive the gift in a way that allows it to transform our lives. Christmas is God's way of reminding the world that there is much work to be done.

My heart is still full, from the wonderful music of the Christmas season, and all that we have shared in worship over the past several weeks. In the afterglow of Christmas, while we need to pause and experience the wonder of God's gift, we must then do the work of Christmas. The hope of Christmas is that people's lives will be changed and transformed. The hope is that we will be touched and healed in a way that will free us to live the work of Christmas, as an intentional way of life. As Christians we are called to carry the spirit of Christmas in our hearts all year long. May each of us find a way to share the light of Christ wherever it is needed.

Long after the colorful lights on our trees, in our windows and around our doors, are bundled up and put away, God's light in us still needs to shine. We need to be a light to one another throughout the year. We need to strengthen and encourage each other so that – together – we may be about the work of Christmas. Amid our New Year's resolutions, let us covenant together to be each other's light amid the darkness. The burdens we carry, the grief we bear, our health concerns – all these things can weigh heavily on our hearts. Troubles don't magically disappear and the change that we want to see in our lives most often happens gradually rather than overnight. We know that all of who we are and all of what we face in life will follow us into the New Year, but so too will God and the power of God in our lives. Throughout every experience we are blessed by a God who abides with us, Emmanuel.

As we journey into this New Year, may God give us the wisdom and strength to see where and how we might love and serve God, in whatever circumstance we find ourselves. Whatever the future may hold, may we be led by the hope of Christmas. For when we are, the work of Christmas is really not work at all, but rather an opportunity to tell the story of God's love in the world.

O Lord, let my New Year's resolution be to follow you
more closely and to trust in your loving guidance.

From Faith Community Nurse Noelle

Faithful Steps toward Health and Healing in 2026

As a nurse, I am trained to look beyond symptoms and ask deeper questions: How is this person really doing?

What is contributing to their fatigue, pain, or stress? What small changes might help restore strength over time? Over the years, I have learned that healing and health are rarely quick or simple. They unfold slowly, through attentive care, patience, and compassion. As we begin a New Year, many people feel pressure to make dramatic resolutions. Lasting health - physical or spiritual - comes not from extremes, but from faithful attention to small, sustainable practices grounded in grace. In healthcare, we never begin with judgment; we begin with assessment. We start where a person truly is, not where we wish they were. God does the same with us. Psalm 103:8, "The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love."

Simple, Healthy Practices That Care for Body and Soul

Prayer Walks: Even short walks improve circulation, balance, mood, and heart health. When paired with prayer, they also quiet the mind and open space for God's presence.

Movement with Scripture: Gentle stretching or chair exercises done while reflecting on Scripture remind us that God's Word is meant to dwell in us fully - even as we move.

Hydration and Nourishment as Sacred Care: In nursing, dehydration and poor nutrition affect nearly every system in the body. Let meals and water become moments of gratitude and mindfulness before God.

Rest as Holy Obedience: The body cannot heal without rest. God designed rest not as weakness, but as wisdom.

Just as physical health declines without consistent care, spiritual health suffers when neglected. Yet spiritual growth does not require perfection or long hours. It requires regular connection.

Scripture as Daily Medicine: One verse read slowly and repeatedly throughout the week can steady the heart and reframe anxious thoughts. Psalm 119:105 "Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path."

Breath Prayers: In healthcare, controlled breathing is used to reduce pain and anxiety. Pairing breath with prayer - "Lord, I trust You" - invites peace into both body and soul.

Gratitude as Healing Practice: Research shows gratitude improves mental and emotional health. Scripture invites us into this healing posture. 1 Thessalonians 5:18, "Give thanks in all circumstances."

Walking into the New Year Together

From a nurse's heart and a follower of Christ, my hope for this New Year is that we treat ourselves and one another with compassion. Healing - physical and spiritual - is not rushed. It unfolds as we place ourselves daily in God's faithful care. God works powerfully not through our strength alone, but through our willingness to trust Him in weakness. Proverbs 16:3, "Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and He will establish your plans."

Nurse Noelle

Sun Health Presents Nutrition and Heart Health

On Thursday, January 8, at 10:00 a.m., in Fellowship Hall, join Nurse Noelle and the Sun Health Nutrition Team to discover ways that foods can promote heart healthy living. Topics include dietary patterns that can help with blood pressure control, suggestions for reducing added sugars, and overall healthy eating. This session will include an introduction to the DASH (Dietary Approach to Stop Hypertension) diet. Sign up during fellowship hour between services or in the church office.

Caregiver Support Group

Join us Monday, January 5, at 1:00 p.m. in the Conference Room.

Caregiving is both a blessing and a burden. If you are caring for others at home, at a facility or for a neighbor, please join our Caregiver Support Group. This group offers a warm and caring time where you can share your story, find new resources and receive support.

This group is open to anyone. You do not need to be a member of the church to attend.

Labyrinth Experience!

Tuesday, January 6, 2026 at 10:30 a.m.

Prayer Labyrinth

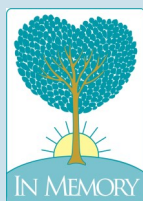

Did you know that Desert Palms has a labyrinth? It is located in the west parking lot. The Spiritual Life and Growth Committee is sponsoring an opportunity to learn about the labyrinth and then experience it. We will meet in Fellowship Hall at 10:30 a.m. on January 6 for a brief discussion and then cross the street to visit the labyrinth.

What is a labyrinth? A labyrinth is similar to a maze but our labyrinth is not a problem to be solved; it is a single path from the outside to the center and back out the same path. No dead ends. Yay! Join us on January 6 for a time of prayer, fellowship, learning, and meditation.

Celebrations of Life

Mary Jo Rodriguez joined the Church Triumphant on December 23. A Celebration of Life service will be held on Saturday, January 17, at 11:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary. A reception will follow in Fellowship Hall.

A Celebration of Life Service for Don Swanson will be held on Friday, January 16, at 11:00 a. m. in the Sanctuary. A reception will follow in Fellowship Hall.

Cardio Drumming

Cardio drumming combines cardio exercise to the rhythm of music in an easy yet effective workout. It is a fun, fast-paced way to get your heart rate up, strengthen muscles and burn a ton of calories. You will need an exercise ball, a bucket large enough for the ball to fit and drumsticks.

2026 Per Capita

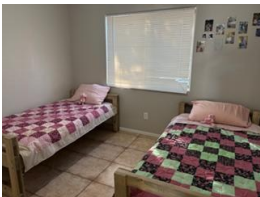

There is a long list of activities the broader Presbyterian Church provides to every local church. Per Capita is a means by which each member of the local churches contributes financially to maintain and improve upon this foundation. We are not often aware of the value of Per Capita, but it is there all the time – especially when we need it.

Desert Palms Church is very supportive of Per Capita. We recognize the benefits to our church and request that each member do the same with a designated Per Capita contribution of $42 per member, or $84 per couple. above and beyond your annual estimate of giving to the operations of the church.

We truly appreciate the Per Capita contributions that many members continue to make. Again, we thank you so much for your ongoing contributions towards our Operations account and ask that you prayerfully consider contributing towards the Per Capita fund if you have not already done so.

Quilting Ministry

HAPPY NEW HANDS! Yes, hands it is, as that's what our Quilting group needs. If you can tie a knot, that's all it takes to help put together a quilt. That quilt ends up on a needy child's bed, made by our ladies. The group we are helping out is called "Sleep in Heavenly Peace" and sleeping in a warm bed covered by one of our quilts is surely where dreams are made.

We meet the first and third Thursdays of each month from 9:00 a.m. to noon (that doesn't mean you have to stay that long).

Please stop by and view just what it takes to tie a knot. Be sure to bring your hands along, as we surely can use them.

The Salvation Army Angel Tree

A big thank you to everyone who participated in the Salvation Army Angel Tree Program. This year we received 101 tags from the Salvation Army! The Angel

Our "Elves" helped us distribute and collect the tags and gifts. We cannot thank you all enough for your generous shopping and sharing. There are many happy children in the Surprise area who felt your love on Christmas morning.

DPPC Mission Project: Habitat for Humanity Partnership

Mission Committee Partnership for FY 2026

Desert Palms Presbyterian Church's Mission Committee, chaired by Elder Glenda Miles, has selected Habitat for Humanity as one of its key mission projects for fiscal year 2026. Habitat for Humanity is a nonprofit organization dedicated to building affordable housing for those in need. This selection reinforces the church's commitment to supporting impactful community initiatives.

Focus on "Aging in Place" Efforts

This year, Desert Palms Presbyterian Church (DPPC) will collaborate with Habitat for Humanity to support their "aging in place" program. The focus is on repairing existing homes to ensure they are safer and more comfortable for senior residents. Habitat is working to make critical safety improvements, mobility modifications, weatherization enhancements, and additional exterior improvements such as painting and landscaping. These efforts are specifically targeted at homes occupied by individuals aged 65 and older, allowing them to continue living independently in their own residences.

Previous and Current Support for Habitat for Humanity

In previous years, the DPPC Missions Committee directed the congregation's generous contributions to Habitat for Humanity to help finance the construction of new homes for qualified families in the Phoenix West Valley area. Building a new home typically costs around $125,000. Rather than focusing solely on monetary donations, DPPC members are now encouraged to volunteer their time and labor to help with construction projects.

How to Get Involved

Those interested in volunteering with Habitat for Humanity are invited to connect with Diana Fredlund, a DPPC member who has participated in building several Habitat homes in the past. Volunteering offers a hands-on way to support the mission and make a tangible difference in the lives of local seniors and families.

Daily Devotionals

Desert Palms encourages everyone to spend time in the Word of God each day. One way to do this is by using a devotional.

These devotionals can be found on campus in our kiosks or by inquiring at the reception desk. Both regular and large print are available.

If you are unable to stop by the church to pick up a copy, we would be happy to mail you one. Send us an email at: dppc@desertpalmschurch.org, or call the church office at (623) 584-4602.

Douglas Trip

Dave and Dinah Finney had the privilege of representing Desert Palms at the 'Rising Out of Ashes' Dedication held at First Presbyterian Church in Douglas, AZ on December 6 and 7. The Dedication Events were held in the newly built Agape Fellowship Hall. This is the facility that was recently built, including a community kitchen, and holds all services and events since the arsonist fire destroyed the sanctuary two-and-a-half years ago. DPPC has helped in numerous ways by donating financial support.

A special thank you to all of you who donated heartwarming items for the Silent Auction which filled the back of an SUV. The total collected from the Silent Auction was $1,245. Some of the donations were held back in the church and will be used for hospital visits, encouragement to move forward in life, and for day-to-day survival. This included quilts, throws, prayer shawls, Minnetonka moccasins, and a piece of jewelry. Also, several donated items were used as Raffle Prizes as everyone was invited to bring a non-perishable food item for the community kitchen.

The Saturday Dedication included speakers, acknowledgements, unveiling of special art projects, silent auction, folklore dancing, and a special lunch. On Sunday there was a special worship service with communion, neighboring church choir, and potluck meal.

The worship service was in both English and Spanish as many members are from across the border. It was interesting that several Spanish speaking members wore headphones for translation of the sermon as it was delivered in English by Rev. Brad Munro from Grand Canyon Presbytery.

The 144 chairs in the Fellowship Hall that were donated by The Colonnade via Desert Palms are a welcome necessity for all services and events. Desert Palms was responsible for covering the cost of the truck rental to transport the chairs to Douglas and provided overnight lodging for the couple that came to pick up the chairs. Seeing the chairs filled with members and visitors was quite emotional for The Finneys.

The rebuild of the sanctuary is on hold due to financial issues and discussions on how to move forward. There are several plans being looked at for down the road. We had the privilege of meeting the gentleman and his wife from Chandler who helped with the rebuilding of the Agape Fellowship Hall.

One interesting addition to the Finney's trip was that while touring Douglas they got on the wrong street and ended up going across the border where they found friendly and understanding Border Control Officers who reassured them that this happens quite often.

Check out the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall for additional information and photos.

Happy New Year!

The Prayer Shawl Ministry Group wishes everyone a very special year with love and peace for our world. We will meet Wednesday, January 21, 2026, at 12:30 p.m. in Room B. Looking forward to being together again.

Blessings,
Carole Jean Soine

Christ caring for people through people

STEPHEN MINISTRY

*When the cares of my heart are many,
Your comfort gives me renewed hope and cheer. (Psalm 94:19)*

When a Stephen Minister offers care and comfort to another, they are stepping into a holy place, into the other person's unique universe of selfhood, need and pain. It is holy because, when they enter in, they find Jesus already there ahead of them – in that unique person. What a privilege! Stephen Ministry is a ministry of presence and companionship which equips church members to provide effective care to those who are going through a difficult time. It is quiet, confidential and compassionate. If you are feeling down, lonely, stressed, or discouraged, perhaps you could benefit from the support and encouragement of a Stephen Minister.

To request a Stephen Minister or to learn about Stephen Ministry training, please contact Pastor Linda, Kathe Cochrane, or Carole Jean Soine.

Ushers and Greeters

One of the simplest and most meaningful ways to serve our church is by being a friendly face at the door. We're looking for volunteers to help greet and usher during worship, offering smiles, directions, and a spirit of hospitality to everyone who comes to church.

You don't need special skills - just a welcoming heart and a willingness to help others feel at home. Whether you can serve occasionally or more regularly, your presence makes a difference.

If you're interested or would like to learn more, please contact the church office or sign up at the Volunteer Opportunities table in Fellowship Hall between services on Sunday. Thank you for helping us share Christ's love from the moment people arrive.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY

2025 Eleven Months	ACTUAL	BUDGET
Total Income	$1,172,231	$1,101,400
Total Expenses	$1,043,986	$1,119,554
Net Income (loss)	$128,245	($18,154)

God continues to bless our church, both spiritually and financially. November financial results were almost exactly on plan. Contributions for the month were $3,742 under planned and were $70,831 better than planned year to date. Expenses for November were $9,140 below planned and were $75,568 better than planned year to date. The resulting Net Income remains nicely ahead of planned year to date. If you have not already contributed $41 per person, please remember to support our Per Capita responsibility.

Our Endowment investments have continued to grow. Our trailing 12-month growth rate is 14.4%.

Be sure to take advantage of qualified charitable distributions from your IRA so that you don't pay taxes on the amount of your distributions. You can prepay your 2026 pledge in 2025 through December 31.

Please remember the church in your will. You can also designate the church as a beneficiary on specific financial accounts as an alternative approach.
