Book Club

Tabor Hills Book Club will meet on Tuesday, January 20th at 1:30 pm in the Game Room at the Pavilion. We will discuss The Wide, Wide Sea by Hampton Sides. Sides is a gifted author who creates a "you-are-there" feeling with his writing. This nonfiction account of Captain John Cook's final voyage is a fast-paced, high-seas adventure. The dedicated reader enjoys the thrilling narrative and yet struggles with Cook's legacy and the complex consequences of the Age of Exploration. Join us for our thoughtful discussion of this thrilling read. Copies of the book are provided by Naperville Public Library. You may ask Gabriella for one of our library copies but be sure to return it at or before our meeting.

DVDs Available to Borrow from the Pavilion Courtesy of the Naperville Public Library after 12/23

Eleanor the Great
Directed by Scarlett Johansson. Starring June Squibb as the titular 94-year-old who moves to New York and befriends a young student, leading to a story about grief, storytelling, and intergenerational friendship. The film, which premiered at the Cannes Film Festival, is a humorous and poignant exploration of how stories evolve, featuring themes of loss and survival.

Small Things Like These
A historical drama film starring Cillian Murphy, based on Claire Keegan's novel, about a coal merchant in 1985 Ireland who uncovers dark secrets about the local convent and the Magdalene Laundries. The film explores themes of complicity, abuse, and the power of the Catholic Church in Irish society, forcing the protagonist to confront his past and the silence of his community.

The Roses
A reimagining of the 1989 film 'The War of the Roses.' Starring Olivia Colman and Benedict Cumberbatch as a couple whose seemingly perfect life unravels due to career competition and resentment, the film explores their bitter divorce and the destruction of their marriage.

Caught Stealing
A crime thriller directed by Darren Aronofsky, starring Austin Butler as a former baseball player turned New York bartender who gets entangled with gangsters after agreeing to cat-sit for his neighbor.

Downton Abbey: the Grand Finale
the third and final film in the Downton Abbey movie series. Concludes the story of the Crawley family as they navigate the 1930s, facing new challenges like scandal and financial trouble, while the staff prepares for a new era, bringing the beloved franchise to a close with its original cast and creative team.

Don't Let's Go to the Dogs Tonight
Based on Alexandra Fuller's memoir about her white family's life in war-torn Rhodesia (now Zimbabwe) during the early 1980s. The story follows eight-year-old Bobo as she navigates the political unrest and racial tensions, seen through her eyes as her family clings to their farm as the country transitions to independence.
