This program utilizes licensed providers from the Therapist Group, postgraduate fellows, as well as clinical interns to provide quality, comprehensive outpatient behavioral health services for a variety of presenting concerns and diagnoses. Children First assists children and families facing adverse circumstances by providing counseling, mentoring, and support at more than 18 Metro Denver Pre-K-12 schools. To ensure that youth with the highest behavioral health needs and decreased access to resources receive care, most MDCC partner schools have high percentages of students who qualify for free or reduced-price lunch and/or are English language learners. Counselors help children age three and up who are in crisis, at risk for school failure, and/or need more consistent and individualized attention than school counselors can offer.

Integrated Care - We value socially responsible partnerships and work to colocate in places where people live, work, and receive services to reduce barriers to care. Our newest partner, Women's Bean Project, also recognizes the very real barriers that individuals face in efforts to change their circumstances, and addresses this by providing a robust transitional employment program that includes job coaching, onsite healthcare, financial literacy, and more. Together, we are able to offer therapy sessions to women in their program free of charge while they are on the job, ensuring that stress and trauma don't get in the way of their success.
