STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT: DECEMBER 17

That we realize suffering is a gift and helps us build empathy for others and build our dependence on God.

"Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus." – 1 Thessalonians 5:16 - 18

This scripture reading sums up Stewardship. "Rejoice always" means place your trust in God; He will provide all that you need. "Pray constantly" means prayer should be a running conversation with God throughout the whole day, every day. "Give thanks in all circumstances" means even in bad situations, thank God. Suffering a little bit helps build empathy for others in similar situations and shows our dependence on God.

LIVE THE LITURGY

In today's Gospel, the religious leaders of Jerusalem are as puzzled and uncertain as to who John the Baptist was. Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. "One worthier than I is coming," he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God's will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let's examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God's plan? How do you approach friends or family in your life who are confused or questioning the faith?

God sends a John the Baptist into every person's life — someone who prepares His way, who calls out His truth. Look for the John the Baptist in your life. Pray you can be this person for someone else.

Testimony

When my grandmother heard the news that my cousin had fallen from a second-story window, she immediately went and washed her hair.

Grandma had been sitting alone in her house, listening to the morning radio when the announcer shared a news bulletin stating that the previous night, a little boy with the same name as her grandson, living in the same community and of the same age, had fallen onto the pavement from a window on the second floor of his house. He had been rushed to the hospital but miraculously survived his injuries.

She thought she was hallucinating and wanted to look pretty when the “men in white coats” came to take her away. Thus, the hair-washing.

As it happens, the whole story was true — it was her grandson, but this was before the age of mobile phones and had happened so late at night that his parents had been unable to notify any family members before the whole thing showed up on the news.

It wasn't until my grandmother received a phone call from another relative corroborating the story that she realized it hadn't been a figment of her imagination. What a waste of styled hair, no hospital committal for her that day.

There are certain truths that we cannot accept unless they are supported by the testimony of others. We find them to be unbelievable without the reassurance of another person whispering, “It's okay. I see it, too.”

This is the value of testimony, and the purpose of John the Baptist and every saint who ever died with the name of Jesus Christ on their lips. And this is the sacred duty of all the baptized, to give testimony with our words and our actions.

How will you testify today?

“He was not the light, but came to testify to the light.”
— John 1:8

December 17, 2023

3rd Sunday of Advent

Why do we believe in Jesus and the Catholic Church? Why should we continue to do so? We've never seen him face-to-face (at least not most of us, I assume). Most of us have never had mystical visions of angels or saints. We live in the same world as our atheist and secularists friends. Why do we believe in Christ if we've never seen him?

The simple, symbolic answer the Gospel presents to us this week might surprise us: we believe because of John the Baptist. Early in John's Gospel we hear: “There was a man sent from God, his name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him.” The Baptist powerfully announces Jesus. This is a historical fact, and it is also now a pattern at work in our lives.

John the Baptist stands for the entirety of the old covenant, everything entrusted to the Jewish people. And yet he prophetically opens the door to something entirely new in Jesus, to the revival and fulfillment of God's promises. In every generation, and in every human life, God continues to do this. He has done it through people named Augustine, Francis, Catherine, Theresa, and countless others. In my life, the Baptist's spirit has come through persons named Eric, Paul, Mary, and Ron. I challenge you to name at least three people through whom God has announced the coming of Jesus in your life. Consciously thank God for their testimony. And let's commit ourselves to listening to the spirit of John the Baptist testify again this week so that we might more strongly believe in the light.

— Father John Muir

New Bible Study for Adults starting in January 2024!

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom

The book of Matthew brings the history of Christ to life. We see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the kingdom of heaven. Matthew: The King and His Kingdom, a twenty-four-part Bible study, explores how Jesus is challenging and empowering us to a new level of holiness and shows how we must be thoroughly immersed in the kingdom of heaven on earth, the Church, to live it.

Mary Queen's Adult Faith Formation Department will begin Matthew: The King and His Kingdom on January 16th. The course includes 24-lessons, online access to videos (1-year), a workbook & the small group discussions. All these are included in with purchase of the material for $40.

Classes will be held weekly on Tuesdays from 7:00 – 8:30 PM at Mary's House.

Visit our website to register at <https://bit.ly/MatthewBibleStudy>.

For more information, please contact Eby Kurian.

Journey through Advent with Fr. John Burns

Calling all the Young Adults: whether you are navigating life post-high school, attending college or trade school, or establishing yourself as an early career professional, join us for a new series during this season of Advent- 'Adore'.

You have a choice this Advent: Get caught up in the annual rush of shopping, decorating, and parties, or slow down and take a few minutes each day to remember who this season is about- JESUS.

In Adore, popular author and speaker Fr. John Burns and illustrator Valerie Delgado of Pax will help you reclaim the sacred sense of longing and joyful hope at the heart of Advent, focusing on a new theme each week - vigilance, preparation, nearness, and Emmanuel - that you can relate to your own life.

Join us on the following Wednesday evenings: December 6th, 13th & 20th after the 6:30 PM Holy Mass. All young adults of ages 18-35 are invited to attend our faith sharing small group session from 7:00-8:30 PM.

Please contact Eby Kurian at ekurian@maryqueenchurch.org or 281-482-1391 to get more information and/or to sign-up for this new series. To watch a promotional video of the series, visit <https://bit.ly/AdorePromo>.

AROUND THE PARISH

Reminder!

The nursery will be closed Sunday, December 24th and Sunday, December 31st so that the staff may enjoy the holidays with their families.

Diocesan Services Fund (DSF) Update

With your gifts so far, our parish has funded $167,000 toward our DSF commitment of $185,000, leaving an unpaid balance of $18,000, which is due by the end of the year.

And so, we ask two things of you – first, if you have already pledged a donation but not completely funded it yet, please do so before the end of the year. Second, for those of you who have not yet committed to this cause, prayerfully consider contributing before December 31st.

You can do so online through our Mary Queen app, by dropping off a check in the collection basket or at the church office, by scanning the QR code, or by visiting give.archgh.org. Please make sure all checks have DSF written in the memo.

Thank you for your consideration, and may God continue to bless you, your families, and our Mary Queen community.

Once again because of the great support of the parish, the Social Concerns Ministry of Mary Queen was able to bless 210 families totaling 597 people with all the groceries needed for a Thanksgiving Dinner. Thank you for your continued support.

The Food Pantry would like to publicly thank Tim, the owner of Great Harvest (212 S. Friendswood Dr). He feels strongly about not throwing away food, so Food Pantry volunteers stop by Monday – Friday to pick up donated, day-old, made-from-scratch bread to be distributed to our pantry clients. If you visit Great Harvest anytime soon, feel free to thank him in person for his generosity!

Christmas is only weeks away! Still looking for the perfect gift? Please consider donating a gift from our Mary Queen Social Concerns Gift Catalog in honor of a loved one. There are many options to choose from, ranging from $5 to $1,700. Each donation receives a card to send to the person whom you are gifting. Families in need will greatly benefit from your gift.

For more information, pick up a Gift Catalog from the Narthex or Reception Desk, or scan the QR code.

We're Hiring

Dear Mary Queen Families,

After much discernment with her husband and family, Terri Ryan made the decision last spring to begin transitioning out of her staff position as Director of Adolescent Catechesis and Evangelization here at Mary Queen. Over the last nine months, our leadership has made significant progress in staffing the Youth Ministry Department with faithful, talented people that will be able to assist our next Director in picking up where Terri is leaving off to continue faithfully serving our Youth. She has loved her time serving the individuals and families of Mary Queen these last four and half years and wants to thank you for your support, friendship, and love. She has also expressed her gratitude for all the youth she has been able to share our Catholic faith with. They have given her the energy and drive necessary to strive to be the best she could be, and she will always cherish the time she had with them.

While Terri will be present for most of the remaining Sunday CAST nights scheduled for fall and spring, she is doing so as a volunteer. Her last official day as a staff member of Mary Queen will be on January 1st, 2024. We would like to express our sincere gratitude to Terri for her time here and her willingness to assist Mary Queen in this period of transition. Our prayers are with her and her future ministry in the Church, and we'll be seeing Terri and her family in the pews here at Mary Queen.

Mary Queen Catholic Church is currently seeking a full-time Director of Youth Ministry.

For more information about the position and to view the full job description, visit www.maryqueencatholicchurch.org/employment-opportunities.

Interested candidates who meet the requirements listed in the job description are invited to submit a cover letter, resume, and references via email to John Laine, Business Manager, at jlaine@maryqueencatholicchurch.org.

We had a great turn out again this year for the 'Advent Family Prayer Gathering, Wreath Making & Blessing'!

It was a great way to begin the Season of Advent and all the families enjoyed making their own Advent wreath and special performances of short skits, puppet show & songs.

For all those who are Health Care Workers, First Responders, Social Service Workers, those who continue to work to serve the community and all who are suffering and recovering from the Covid-19 virus.

Lord Jesus, who went about doing good and healing all, we ask you to bless our friends who are sick. Give them strength in body, courage in spirit and patience with pain. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

We offer the Vigil Candle as a Memorial Candle each week to interested parishioners who would like to request that it burn "In Memory of..." or "In Honor of..." a loved one, living or deceased. To reserve the candle, contact the Receptionist in the Parish Office at 281-482-1391. The name of your loved one will be published in the bulletin and near the Sanctuary Candle in the Church.

Prayer List Requests

If you have a family member or friend who needs special prayers by our parish community, please consider placing them on the Mary Queen Prayer List after getting their permission. Provide the name to Loretta Delaney at reception@maryqueenchurch.org. Names will be added to the list for 60 days. Once the initial time is up, we kindly ask that you not renew your request for another 60 days. Due to the overwhelming amount of requests, we will abide by this policy in order to accommodate all new prayer requests.

The Sign of Peace

Question:

Why do Catholics give the sign of peace to one another at Mass?

Answer:

The sign of peace is a part of the Mass that takes place immediately after we offer the Lord's Prayer. Inspired by the Jesus' words to his first followers, we stand together in a spirit of communion to pray as Jesus taught us: "Our Father who art in heaven..." In this prayer, we call for the coming of God's kingdom in all its fullness and ask that God provides for our needs — "Give us, this day, our daily bread" — to forgive our sins and to bring us to the joy of heaven. It is almost natural, then, that the rite of peace would follow. As the celebrant prays that Christ's peace will fill our hearts, our communities, the Church, and the whole world, we extend to those around us a sign of peace (usually a hug or a handshake) as a symbol of the communion that we experience now and will experience forever in the fullness of the reign of God.

We are also reminded of Jesus' teachings that if we are at prayer and remember that a brother or sister is holding something against us, then we are to go and seek reconciliation with them before we continue our prayer (see Matthew 5:23). And so, the sign of peace also reminds us of the need to truly be in communion — united in love and peace — with God and one another before we approach the altar to receive the Eucharist.

So, the next time you're at Mass and the time comes for the sign of peace, remember that this is a moment to celebrate the gift of Christ's peace that each of us has received from God and to pass that peace along to those around us. We need this moment to practice, because this is also the same peace of Christ that we are instructed to carry out into the world at the end of Mass when the priest or deacon says to us, "Go, in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life."

A Constant Companion

As Christians, we are called to a life of prayer. This is not just during seasons like Advent, but all year long. When we talk about being prayerful everyday stewards, we are speaking about cultivating an awareness of God being with us at all times. Each day we begin by offering God the entirety of our day. Each night we rest in Him and hope that the hours that passed gave Him glory.

During this busy time of Advent, it is hard to cultivate this life of prayer, but without it we can too easily lose sight of the reason for the season. It is during this time of year we need to heed the words of St. Paul more than ever when he wrote to the Thessalonians, "Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing." This is how we will be able to avoid the pitfalls of consumerism and secularism and keep our eyes fixed on Jesus.

Bring Jesus with you into the office Christmas party. Take him with you shopping for gifts in the department store. Be aware of him when you sit down to watch television specials you have seen every year of your life. Give him all your time and let his presence fill your every moment. By striving to be connecting with Jesus at all times, you will bear greater fruit and the joy you experience will be much greater than you could imagine. You might even spend a few less dollars and spend more time with those you love, particularly the one who loves you the most, the Incarnation himself.
